Garnet Rogers to sing at Chicory House June 13

Garnet Rogers, one of Canada's most acclaimed singer songwriters, brings his literate, passionate and evocative music to the Chicory House, Fri., June 13, at 8 p.m.

The coffee-style concerts are held in the community room of St. Stephen's Church, 35 South Franklin Street in Wilkes-Barre. The Chicory House is not affiliated with St. Stephen's.

Hailed by the Boston Globe as a "charismatic performer and singer," Rogers is a man with a powerful physical presence—close to six and a half feet tall—with a voice to match. He combines extraordinary and memorable songwriting with over-the-top humor and lightning-quick wit, winning raves from audiences across the U.S. and Canada. Rogers was barely out of high school, when he began touring as full-time musician with his older brother Stan's band. Together they formed what has come to be accepted as one of the most influential acts in North American folk music. Concerned about the homeless and hungry, he requests that audience members bring non-perishable food or personal care items to the June 13 concert to be donated to the local St. Vincent DePaul food bank. Resolutely independent, Rogers has turned down offers from major labels to do his music his own way on the independent Snow Goose label. His just-released seventh solo recording "Night Drive" is a powerful, raw and moving collection of songs—"his best yet," according to the Ottawa Citizen.

Opening for Rogers will be Baltimore singer-songwriter Andrew Lawrence.

Recordings of both artists will be available for purchase at the Chicory House concert. Admission to the concert, Fri., June 13 at 8 p.m. is $7 for members and $8 for non-members. Doors open at 7:30 p.m. Seating is first-come, first-served. Desserts and beverages will be available for purchase throughout the evening. The Chicory House general information number is 825-8772.

Garnet Rogers will perform at Chicory House June 13
