custody and later released the their parents. One is a 16 year old from Courtsdale and the other is a 17 year old from Pringle. Both will be petitioned to juvenile court, said Chief James Balavage of Kingston Twp. Police. The car was impounded and will later be released to its owner.

Noon said it was definitely quite a job for the two boys to take the large trampoline apart. "I should know. It was hard work getting it together," she said. Noon is grateful to both her neighbors and their dog. "I'm so thankful they were so in tune to it," she said. "They were neighborly enough to call the police."

Despite the fact that the thieves were caught and the trampoline will be returned, the incident has left its mark on the family. "It's kind of frightening to think we were home and didn't even know it was going on. It felt like our privacy was invaded."
