Brennan tournament results

Thirty foursomes responded to the St. Therese's Joe Brennan Memorial Tournament held on Friday at the Four Seasons Golf Course in Exeter. Co-chairpersons for the event were Gary and Fran Williams. Pastor of St. Therese's is Fr. Peter Crynes. Prizes were awarded in three flights. Men's, Women's and Mixed.

Winners in the Men's flight were Ron Masitis, John Stubeda, Walter Cuba and Bob Considine.

In the Women's division: Joan Adams, Rita Kaminski, Connie Rado and Marion Pollock.

In the Mixed division: Jean Brennan, Bill Dantona, Randy Vaskas and Marlene Smith.

Tom Kilduff pounded the longest drive on hole #1. Marie Barbose's accuracy gave her the closest to the line on hole #17, and a sharp eye gave Bob Paley closest to the pin on #6 and on #8 Tom Sheridan took the prize for closest to the pin. Tom Sheridan also won the drawing for the Pot O' Gold for holding green on hole #12.

An avid golfer, Joe Brennan was actively involved in St. Therese's parish and was one of the founders of the Shavertown church's golf tournament beginning in 1991. Following his death in 1993, the committee renamed the event in his memory. The annual tournament has grown to become a successful fund raiser for the parish.
