A taste of the Far East

Noriko Miyagi Wille brought Japan to local children recently at College Misericordia. During the week-long program, kids were taught the ancient art of painting bamboo shoots, Japanese words, customs and how to eat with chopsticks. Maureen Engle, creator of many summer classes for the college, helped coordinate the class. Showing off a variety of art and other symbols of Japan are first row, from left, Chelsea Calhoun, 9; Stephanie Gonczoi, 7; Nicholas Orlove, 6; Chelsea Cardillo, 10; Michele Galeano, 10; Claire Mitchell, 7; second row, Michelle Mashals, 10; Beth Gardner, 8; Stephanie Kiluk, 7; Luke Rogers, 7; Gaelen Kelly, 10; Candice Cernera, 10. Maureen Engle is standing at the far left, while Noriko Miyagi Wille is at the far right.

DISTRICT COURT BRIEFS

D.U.I. CHARGES

The following defendants waived their rights to preliminary hearings before District Justice James Tupper:

• Robert Franklin Jr., 34, Dallas, who was arrested on April 10 after Dallas Township chief Wayman Myers saw his vehicle weave across lanes on Rt. 309. After failing field sobriety tests, he refused to take a breath test to determine his blood alcohol level. Refusal to take a blood alcohol test results in a loss of driver's license for one year.

• Steven Martin, 24, Dallas, who was arrested on May 18 after Lake Township patrolman John Masloski responded to a hit and run accident in which Martin allegedly hit a mailbox on Crisman Rd. A blood test showed his blood alcohol level to be .154.

He was also charged with the possession of marijuana and operating a vehicle without a valid inspection.

ILLEGALLY OPERATING SNOWMOBILE

Alexander Wilson Jr., 36, Noxen, waived his right to a preliminary hearing on a charge of illegally operating a snowmobile on the roadway. He was arrested by Lake Township patrolman John Fuches after he wrecked his snowmobile at the intersection of Tulip Rd. and Halowich Rd. in Lake Twp. Wilson's snowmobile was not registered and was not inspected. Wilson was driving down Halowich Rd. When he came to the end of it, he could not stop and fell over an eight-foot wall into a stream below. He was taken by helicopter to Geisinger Danville Hospital. A search warrant was issued to obtain a blood alcohol level, which was .184.
