ested in the game of golf and gives them a chance to play on the best courses in the area. It does a lot to promote the game."

The Juniors play in two age brackets, 12-15 and 16-18, on Mondays throughout the summer. The final tournament of the 1997 season was played August 11 at Emanon Country Club and Honesdale Golf Club.

Earlier in the year, AGA Juniors also played at Elkview Country Club, Scranton Municipal, Wyoming Valley Country Club, Irem Temple Country Club, Frosty Valley Country Club, Fox Hill Country Club and the Country Club of Scranton.

Many Back Mountain residents have taken advantage of the perks of the AGA throughout the years, and one family currently making the most of the AGA experience is the Jumpers.

Richard and Lynn Jumper of Dallas have three sons, Justin, Brad and David who have played in AGA events.

"It's a nice way to get started in golf," said Lynn. "(Dallas High School golf coach) Tom Kilduff got Justin started a few years ago and Brad and David started playing this year. It's a great organization."

"There is a good turnout at all of the tournaments," she explained. "I think there may have been an increase this year due to Tiger Woods's popularity. It's really nice for the kids to get out and play on nice courses."

After playing four years at Dallas High School and on the AGA Junior circuit, Justin Jumper is looking forward to a collegiate career at Division I Iona College. "I played the AGA whenever I could," said Justin. "Playing on nice courses teaches you a lot of different shots that you can work on. It was a great experience."
