Army Pvt. Maurice R. McGeehan has entered basic military training at Fort Jackson, Columbia, SC.

During the eight weeks of training, the soldiers will study the Army mission and will receive instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid, Army history and traditions, and special training in human relations.

McGeehan is the son of Christine L. McGeehan of Dallas and Maurice A. McGeehan, Dunmore.

Kaschenbach completes cadet training

Mark S. Kaschenbach has recently completed cadet basic training at the U.S. Military Academy, West Point, NY.

Cadet basic training is a six-week summer program that instructs new cadets in basic military skills and prepares them for entry into the U.S. Corps of Cadets at the Academy. Emphasis is placed on physical fitness, military skills, introduction to the honor code, military courtesy, drill and ceremonies, and academic instruction.

The U.S. Military Academy is a four-year military and educational institution whose purpose is to provide the nation with leaders of character who serve the common defense. The cadets receive a bachelor's degree and a commission as second lieutenants in the Army upon graduation from the academy.

Kaschenbach is the son of Carl and Adele Kaschenbach of Dallas.
