

Kapson

"I'm going to complete it," said Kapson. "I like to be in the lead, and that's why I like playing quarterback."

Sophomore number 17 plays three sports and is very competitive no matter what he's doing. "He is very intelligent both on and off the field," said Gorgone of his star signal caller. In a few years Kapson sees himself playing college ball for either a Big 10 school or one of the SEC schools down south.

"My main goal is to go out there and win, and in the process hopefully get a scholarship," said Kapson.

The 4-1 Knights come home to play an always tough Bishop Hoban for their homecoming game Saturday. "We can't take any team for granted, but if everyone does what they have to do, we should beat them. We are coming off of a big win at Meyers, where Kapson passed for 100 yards, and a touchdown," Gorgone said.

In the weeks to come we can expect to see nothing but improvement from Kapson, and many passes on their way to #88 Matt Morris, his favorite target. "He is tall and fast and easy to find," said

The buzz around the area is D.J. Kapson could have the strongest arm in high school football. D.J. could only say, "I feel as though I have accomplished something in my early age, and coach Gorgone and the whole staff is doing a good job."

Shouldn't your advertising be, too?

Would you canvass neighborhoods that aren't in your voting district? Of course not. So, why spend precious advertising dollars to reach people who can't vote for your candidate? That's what happens when you use radio, television or city newspapers. But not with The Dallas Post.

The Dallas Post is all local, all the time. And our readers are among the most involved and active in the region. So, when you get their vote you might also get their influence on friends and neighbors.

Don't waste your precious advertising budget on people who live in Wilkes-Barre, Pittston or Mountaintop. Call today for our low rates and other information.
