linebacking corp and late in the game, Mark Rondina and Kyle Smith made some great tackles to thwart the Sailors scoring bids. The Raiders next game is Sun. Oct. 12 at the Wilkes-Barre Bears.

R. Mounts win forfeit

In the spirit of true sportsmanship Dallas Mini-Mounts A team's game ended three minutes into the second quarter against the Larksville Greenwaves. The game was called after one of Larksville's first string players needed medical attention.

The final score was 12-0 Dallas.

On a great opening drive, Dallas' M. Racosky took a fumble recovery and turned it into Dallas' first touchdown.

R. Kapson took a 25 yard pass in for Dallas' second touchdown from QB R. Gryskiewicz.

On the start of the second quarter of play M. Racosky's tackle caused a fumble and allowed an alert lineman R. Kapson to scramble in for Dallas' third touchdown but this TD was called back due to a penalty.

Corner back M. Smith had an awesome game with a QB sack and several fumble causing tackles.

Dallas' first and second string offensive and defensive lines played very well and are looking forward to next week's match-up at home with Duryea.

Dallas' A-Team cheerleaders did an outstanding job on the sidelines.

Dallas' A-Team's record stands at 3-3.

B Squad Mounts were defeated by a score of 32-0, and the C Squad Mounts lost by a score of 38-14.

The Junior Mounts play at home against Duryea Oct. 12.

Up and down

Gary Sagan blasted out of a trap at Irem Temple Country Club during the match between Lake-Lehman and Dallas last week. Dallas won 171-182. Sagan shot a 45.
