Lehman-Jackson PTA membership drive

The Lehman Jackson PTA will be holding its annual membership drive the week of Oct. 6. Concerned parents, grandparents, neighbors and friends are encouraged to join and to show your support of your child's education. Last year PTA members logged over 2800 volunteer hours at the elementary school. Above and beyond that were countless hours that were never logged. Dedicated volunteers like this have made it possible for the Lehman-Jackson PTA to be recognized by the National PTA several times in the last decade with awards for "Most Outstanding Local PTA Unit".

This year the PTA has over 25 committees with many parents involved in trying to make a difference in our children's education. Even if parents can't volunteer time, they are encouraged to show support for this very worthy cause by becoming a member. Membership Committee is headed by PTA Chairperson Sue Dalkiewicz. Front row, from left: Trish King, Tina Davis, Ann Cornell, Colleen Kustrin, Sharon Blaszczak, 2nd Vice President; Donna Hartman, President; Julie Iwanowski, 1st Vice President; Debbie Callahan, corresponding secretary; Janice Poluske, Sandra Brown, Joy Cragle, Gayle DeCesaris, Maggie Fishel. Rear, from left, Victoria Grzybowski, Helen Roderick, Judy McGovern, Sue Dalkiewicz, Linda Kline, Cheryl Summa, Andrea Mitkus, Mary Jo Nelson, secretary; Barry Horvath, Karen Mahoney, David Hartman.

DALLAS HIGH SCHOOL GUIDANCE NOTES

Students should mark calendars for College Night at LCCC

Seniors, juniors and their parents should mark their calendar now and plan to attend Luzerne County Community College's "24th Annual College Night" program. The program will be held on Thurs. Oct. 23, from 7 - 8:30 p.m. in the college gymnasium. Representatives from more than 100 colleges, universities, hospitals, post-secondary technical schools and armed services will be present to discuss educational and career plans with those in attendance. Financial aid officials will be present to discuss federal and state aid available to students interested in attending post-secondary institutions. See your counselor for a list of participating institutions.

Parents, are you confused when it comes to financial aid for your son or daughter? If so, then plan on attending our fall Financial Aid Night on Wed., Oct. 29 at 7 p.m. at the Dallas High School. Penn State University representative Kathy Pesta will be here to present an overview of what is out there in terms of financial aid and how to secure financial assistance. All parents of high school age students in the Back Mountain are cordially invited. So mark your calendar now.

Now on testing. The A.S.V.A.B. (Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery) test will be administered to juniors Wed. Oct. 8, 8:08 a.m. to 11 a.m. in the auditorium. The PSAT test will be given at the high school Sat., Oct. 18.

Students who pre-registered should be here no later than 7:45 a.m. Remember, there is no walk-in registration for this test.

This year's first Student of the Month Awards were presented on Oct. 3 at the Dallas area football stadium. Awards in the form of $50 savings bonds were given for the following:

Creative Student Award - Kevin Frank

Citizen Student Award - Scott Bealla

School Spirit Student Award - Jennifer Moser

Student Achiever Award - Bridget Baines.

The featured speaker was State Rep. Phyllis Mundy. A special thank you to Grange National Bank for being the September sponsor of the Student of the Month Awards.

Cedar Crest College and Johnson Technical Institute will be visiting Dallas High School on Fri., Oct. 17 during flex period.

Applications for Governor's School now being accepted

Applications for the 1998 Pennsylvania Governor's Schools of Excellence are now available beginning at all Intermediate Unit 18 public and nonpublic schools.

The Governor's Schools are five-week-long residential summer programs located on statewide college campuses. These programs serve students with talent and high interest in the arts, agricultural sciences, health care, international studies and languages, discrete sciences and mathematics and teaching. Tuition, room and board, and cost of program activities are free of charge to students who are selected to participate.

The 1998 Pennsylvania Governor's Schools are:

The PA Governor's School for the Arts (Mercyhurst College, Erie)

The PA Governor's School for Agricultural Sciences (Pennsylvania State University, University Park)

The PA Governor's School for Health Care (University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh)

The PA Governor's School for the Sciences (Carnegie Mellon University, Pittsburgh)

The PA Governor's School for Teaching (Millersville University, Lancaster County)

To qualify for application, students must be the children of full-time Pennsylvania residents, they must be in the grade level specified by each program (10th or 11th grades), they must not have previously attended one of the six Pennsylvania Governor's Schools, they may apply to no more than two Governor's Schools in a given year and if they accept an invitation to participate in Governor's Schools they must commit to be in residence for the full five-week program. Home schoolers are eligible.

The programs are sponsored by the PA Department of Education. The Governor's School for Health Care is funded through the Department of Health and PA's health care industries.

The selection process for each program is competitive. Participants will be chosen from across the state.

Each public and nonpublic high school in the LIU 18 district have assigned a designated person to handle distribution of applications. Further questions may be directed to Lisa Altavilla LIU 18 regional coordinator for PGSE at 287-9681, ext. 113.
