Pianist at Kirby Oct. 19th

Jim Brickman to play piano at Kirby Center Oct. 19

The composer, pianist and performer whose dreamily romantic piano artistry and high-spirited, witty interaction with audiences have made him one of America's most popular new concert performers brings his unique talents to the stage of the F.M. Kirby Center for the Performing Arts of Sat. Oct. 19 at 8 p.m.

Brickman has been called a songwriter of the 90's, who combines romantic lyricism with the melodic hooks of fresh Top 40 hits. He revealed a whole new musical canvas earlier this year with the release of Picture This, which included the hit single, "Valentine." A simple romantic ballad with vocals by country artist Martina McBride, hte song gave Brickman his first number one hit at Adult Contemporary radio.

His other top ten singles have included the popular songs, "Angel Eyes" and "If You Believe," from his Windham Hill recording By Heart and "Hero's Dream," a song he wrote for the NBC-TV coverage of the Summer Olympics in Atlanta. He became the first solo piano artist ever to appear on the pop charts with "Rocket to the Moon" from his first album, No Words.

From his beginnings as a top-ranked commercial jingle writer, Brickman has developed into a nationally-recognized concert performer, recording artist and host of a nationally syndicated radio show.

Tickets are priced at $23.50 and $19.50, and may be purchased at the Kirby Box Office and all Ticketmaster locations. Charge by phone at 717-826-1100 or 717-693-4100.
