Forever Fifteen Seth Linsinbialer Born October 23, 1981 Passed Away December 23, 1996 Dearly loved and deeply missed by his Dad Mom, Sister, Brothers, Grandmothers and Grandfather, Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, Classmates, Teachers, and Friends.

He Was So Young, God

So young and strong and filled with promise So vital, so radiant, giving so much joy wher ever he went. He was so brilliant. On this boy you lavished so many talents that could have enriched you world. He had already received so many hon-word, he have already received so many hor-ors, and there were so many honors to come. Why then? In our agony we ask. Why him? Why not someone less gifted? Someone less good? Some hop-head, rioter, thief, brute, hood?

Yet we know, even as we demand what seems to us a rational answer, that we are only intensifying our grief. Plunging deeper into the blind and witless place where all hope is gone.

Dind and wittess place where all nope is gone. A dark lost place where our own gifts will be blunted and ruin replace the goodness he brought and wished for us. Instead, let us thank you for the marvel that this boy was. That we can say good-bye to him without shame or regret, rejoicing in the blessed years he was given to us. Knowing that his bright young life, his many gifts have not truly been stilled or wasted, only lifted to a higher level where the rest of us can't follow yet level where the rest of us can't follow yel Separation? Yes. Loss? Never.

For his spirit will be with us always. And when we meet him again we will be even more
