Sidewalk art

A new public artwork graces the concrete slab in front of a Main Street, Dallas art studio. Created by the Lawson Scholars '97 and sponsored by Sue Hand's Imagery, the mural depicts historical Main Street, Dallas, circa 1900 as it would appear if it were squeezed out of a tube of paint.

This year's Lawson Scholars are an elite group of area high school artists chosen from over 30 applicants. This past summer they participated in art classes taught by four different instructors at Sue Hand's Imagery. They also worked together in private creativity and advanced painting sessions led by artist Sue Hand.

The students who participated in this summer's program were: Paula Franklin, Hunlock Creek; Nila Pardini, Dallas; Mike Sudal, Shavertown; Jenny Scott, Tunkhannock; Kelly Frye, Plains; and Angela DiGiovine, Wilkes-Barre. In order to qualify, the students submitted portfolios of art work, a written narrative, and were individually interviewed. The Lawson Scholarships were founded by Sue and Joe Hand in memory of their friend, Dr. Millie Lawson, a member of the English Department faculty at King's College. Pictured from left: Jenny Scott, Nila Pardini, Paula Franklin, Mike Sudal and Kelly Frye.

Jackson Twp. rec. board to meet Oct. 27

On behalf of the Jackson Township Recreation Board, the Jackson Township Board of Supervisors are going to apply for a Recreation/Park Grant to improve on the multi-purpose recreation facility. The possible improvements slated would be the addition of a baseball field and walking trails. They are inviting the community to come in and share their viewpoints and concerns at the next work session of October 27, at 7 p.m. or the general meeting on November 3 at 7 p.m. The location is the Jackson Township Municipal Building, 2211 Huntsville Rd., Jackson Township.

Fire safety for kids

Every September Volunteer Firefighters from Truckville Fire Department visit with the students of Truckville Nursery School to teach them about "Fire Safety". This year they provided every child with a badge, a Fire Safety Certificate Award, and the opportunity to try on the "Firefighter Uniform". We are very fortunate to have this valuable resource as our neighbors. Shown in the picture from left, are Jeff Myers, Tori Mosca, Shannon Brobst and Larry Long.

MAKING IT EASY TO HELP

The Salvation Army has set up a truck the past few weekends at Pendragon Plaza in Truckville, making it convenient for donors to drop off items that can be used or sold. The truck will return from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Oct. 25 and Nov. 1. The Army also makes a house call run through the Back Mountain on Fridays. Anyone wishing to donate good items may call 823-4191 to schedule pickup. Emily Bobeck, Truckville, handed some items to David Smith last Saturday. She's a regular donor to the Salvation Army.
