

Yearbooks now available at Dallas High

Dallas High School Yearbook Advisor William R. Wagner announces that the 1997 Dallas Yearbooks have been delivered to the school and are available to those students who placed orders earlier this year. Alumni may pick up their yearbooks from 9 a.m.-3 p.m. daily in the senior high school main office. Receipts are helpful, but not necessary. Additionally, a limited number of extra copies are also available on a first-come, first-serve basis for those who did not order earlier. These extra copies go quickly and alumni are encouraged to visit the school as soon as possible. Payment is due in full upon receipt of the book.

The 1998 Yearbook Fundraising Campaign is underway and yearbook staff members are contacting area businesses and organizations for advertisements. The money raised through this campaign remains within the school and directly benefits students by offsetting the yearbook selling price. The Dallas High School Yearbook Staff would like to thank those patrons and advertisers who have supported Dallas students in this campaign.

Misericordia plans trip to tour Philadelphia museum

The College Misericordia Alumni Association will host a trip to the Philadelphia Museum of Art on Sat., Nov. 22. The highlight of the trip will be a tour of the exhibit "Best Dressed: A Celebration of Style." The bus will depart from campus at 8 a.m.

An introductory lecture about clothing as it reflects culture will be presented at the College on Wed., Nov. 19 at 7:30 p.m. by Dr. Jennie Congleton, assistant professor of fine arts.

"Best Dressed" offers more than 200 objects on display on fully dressed mannequins and dress forms and in striking groups of accessories. They include exceptional attire from the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries.

The wedding gown worn by Princess Grace (Kelly) in 1956 will be shown for the first time, together with the dresses worn by a bridesmaid and a flower girl.

The tour will be followed by a sumptuous buffet luncheon and free time to explore the museum. The cost of the trip is $55 per person, which includes the lecture with refreshments, bus fare, entrance fees and luncheon.

To make reservations, call the Misericordia Office of Alumni Relations at 674-6764.

Students learn about cells

Dallas Middle School sixth grade science students from Mrs. Sharon Nardone's classes recently completed their projects on plant and animal cells. As part of their life science unit the students participated in various hands-on activities, researched and created 3-D cell models, and wrote informational articles on cells and heredity.
