Walkin' Jim Stoltz to play November 18

Walkin' Jim Stoltz strolls into town November 18

One of America's most unique folksingers and backcountry travelers, Walkin' Jim Stoltz, on tour from Big Sky, Montana, will bring his inspiring multimedia show, Forever Wild, to Wilkes-Barre on Tues., Nov. 18. The show will be presented at the community hall of the First Presbyterian Church, 97 South Franklin Street in Wilkes-Barre. The time of the show is 7:45 p.m.

Walkin' Jim gets his name from the more than 23,000 miles he has walked through the wild country of North America. Carrying a guitar and writing his songs along the way, his lyrics express a great love and respect for the earth and the wild places he knows so well. Known for his powerful baritone and emotion-packed vocals, his Forever Wild show combines live music and poetry with multi-image slides. The result is a stirring celebration of wilderness. This year's tour marks Jim's 25th year of performing and he will be sharing images from the Utah wildlands, the Northern Rockies, the Pacific Crest Trail from Mexico and Canada, and many other wild places in North America.

This year Jim released his sixth and seventh recordings, "The Web of Life", a children's album, and "Oh, What a Life", a live album celebrating his 25th year of performing. Jim's recordings get regular airplay on National Public Radio and will be on sale at the concert.

Tickets for the performance will be available at the door and are $8 each. Ticket information can be obtained by calling 822-1484.
