Procter & Gamble donates to library

On behalf of the 2600 employees of the company's Mehoopany Plant, the Procter & Gamble Fund recently donated $7,500 toward construction of the new Children's Wing of the Back Mountain Memorial Library. To learn more about the project, John Oswalt, Diaper Plant Manager at Mehoopany, and resident of Dallas, visited the library. In the accompanying photo, library representatives and Mr. Oswalt pause during their tour. From left, John Oswalt; Martha Wheeler, Library Director; Ruth Tetschner, President of the Board of Directors; and Wallace Stettler, Capital Campaign Chairperson.

The Procter & Gamble Fund is the charitable arm of Procter & Gamble. The company's largest plant is in Mehoopany, in Wyoming County.

Do you know what's news? Tell us

A lot of interesting stories go unreported because we never hear about them, but maybe you do. We'd love to have you tell us what you think is news, and where to find more of it.

You'd be surprised how many articles get their start from readers' tips. While we try to get around as much as possible, the people who are out and involved come in contact with ideas we never hear about — unless someone tells us about them.

If you have a tidbit, a story lead, or just a hunch, please pass it along. We'll follow up, and maybe you'll see your idea in print. Please include as much detail as you can, and your name and phone number if you'd like to be interviewed, or have more to say.

But if you want to remain anonymous, our lips will be sealed.

You can send items several ways:
