News and Sports Correspondents

The Dallas Post is seeking a news writer to take occasional assignments. Some assignments will be evening meetings, but other writing is possible and desirable. The ideal candidate will be someone who is interested in the Back Mountain, likes people even if they're sometimes obnoxious or foolish, and can write clearly. Prior newspaper experience is not necessary. Will be paid on a per story basis. Both news and sports writers will be considered.

If you think this might be a good spot for you, call Ron Bartizek at 675-5211, stop by our office and fill out an application (bring a resume if you have one), or write:
