Little Angels

Library news

The children's wing construction is progressing on schedule. The exterior concrete is completed, steps, ramp and sidewalk completed; concrete grinding completed; exterior steel stairs and rails, hand mounted doors and frames are painted. The rough grading is complete; addition/alter areas walls painted. Library equipment moved for ceiling installation, first floor ceiling grids 90% complete; ceiling tile on job. First floor lighting fixtures delivered; handmounted doors, interior, hung and painted; sprinklers in new area tested successfully; sheetrock ceiling and soffit in basement nearing completion; electrical outlets in basement moved as required; underground conduit for electrical completed by others and the windows painted and caulked. The new 40 foot flagpole has been installed; the blackout is scheduled; the carpet has been removed in preparation for new; the lighting has been hung on the first floor.

The library will be closed on December 24 and 25 in celebration of the Christmas holiday and on December 31 and January 1 for the New Year holiday.

The library has received some new CD's: "Christmas Star", carols for the Christmas season with the Cambridge singers and orchestra directed by John Rutter; Hanson Christmas CD, "Snowed In" features familiar carols and new ones: "At Christmas," "Christmas Time," and "Everybody Knows the Claus". "The Very Best of Neil Diamond" includes most of his favorites, "Sweet Caroline", "Holly Holy", "September Morn", "Love on the Rocks" and "He Ain't Heavy, He's My Brother."

New books: "Come The Spring" by Julie Garwood tells of Adam, Douglas and Travis Clayborne who are each happily married, and their beloved Mama Rose is overjoyed with the ladies who have joined the family. Brother Cole is a concern.

"Night Passage" by Robert B. Parker is a major crime fiction event from the Spenser novels. The introduction of Jesse Stone, a hero cut from another cloth, sets an even higher paragon. He is recruited as a police chief in a small town.

"The Wonder Worker" by Susan Howatch is a spellbinding new novel about the ecclesiastical life, focus shifted from theological to temporal and from the spiritual to the corporeal. An electrifying reminder from a master storyteller.
