Looking for traditional style, with modern amenities?

42 Norton Ave., Dallas Borough
 (Between Machel and Huntsville)

Built when quality meant something, full two stories plus a walk-in attic, with features like this:

- 'Sunroom' off the living area, makes a great office or TV room. Comes with custom-made thin metal blinds for all windows.
- About 1/3 level acre, with trees, shrubs and room to play catch.
- Wonderful 300 sq. ft. rear deck for meals, sunning and parties.
- 'Gourmet' white kitchen, redone in '91, with the coolest faucet and range hood you can buy and a built-in desk and wine rack.
- Refinished southern pine floors in dining room and all 3 bedrooms.
- New since 1991: gas furnace, hot water heater, electrical service, neutral berber carpets, vinyl floors, front porch, first floor powder room, vinyl siding (1995), sink and counter in upstairs bath.
- Original fireplace and mantle, now with glass doors.
- Dallas School District.

What else? Low taxes and heating costs (attic floor is insulated), convenient to school and library, in a nice neighborhood, even a treehouse. Why is it for sale? Owners are building a new house and don't really need two, so you can buy this one for $114,900.

If you'd like to see it, call Judy Rice at Lewitt & Freeman Real Estate, 288-9371. (She lives just around the block.)
