

E. Stroudsburg dean's list, fall sem.

Four Back Mountain students have been named to the dean's list at East Stroudsburg University of Pennsylvania for the first semester of the 1997-98 academic year.

Students eligible for the dean's list are those who have attained a 3.50 quality point average or better. Among those students named to the dean's list are:

Rick D. Finnegan, junior, Environmental Studies, Dallas; Emily A. Miers, junior, Nursing, Dallas; Jennifer R. Krakosky, junior, Hospitality Management, Shavertown; Elizabeth S. Stearn, junior, Environmental Studies, Wyoming.

Dallas High School Students of the Month

The P.T.S.O. recently awarded four students the Student of the Month Award for January. This month's sponsor for the $50 savings bond presented to each student was Coates Reprographics of Dallas. Junior Robyn Willauer, 16, won the School Spirit award. She is the daughter of Frederick and Tammy Willauer of Trucksville. She is a member of student council and the Steering Club. Sophomore Erin Allardyce, 15, won the Student Citizen award. She is the daughter of Robert and Pamela Allardyce of Dallas. She is involved with the yearbook, student council and the swim team. Allardyce is an honor student and lettered in swimming. Senior Brian Katyl, 17, won the Creative Student award. He is the son of Mark Katyl and Debra Gabel and lives in Dallas. He is currently editor of the school newspaper. Junior Marcus Sowcik, 16, won the Student Achiever award. He is the son of Mark and Mary Sowcik of Shavertown. He is a member of student council, peer helpers and junior Steering Club. From left, kneeling, Diane Sherman, guidance; Erin Allardyce, Robyn Willauer. Standing, Ian Gammage, Coates Reprographics; Brian Katyl, Marcus Sowcik and Kathy Raub, PTSO secretary.
