

Showing off teens' work

The public is invited to the opening reception of the 17th annual Suzanne Maria Rossetti Memorial Juried Art Show on Sun., March 1, from 1-4 p.m. at the MacDonald Art Gallery, College Misericordia. An awards ceremony will follow at 4 p.m.

Over 900 entries were judged separately on each grade level in a variety of categories including pencil, pastel, watercolor, acrylic, oil, ink, scratchboard, mixed media, fibers, photography, prints, and miniature drawings and paintings. Each student may submit a total of three entries. Of this year's entries, 320 were accepted to be on display at the MacDonald Art Gallery sat College Misericordia.

Ribbons will be awarded in 12 categories on each grade level by two panels of three judges each. In addition, $1,500 in community sponsored awards have been awarded by a separate awards jury. The exhibit of winning art works will continue through Sunday, April 5. Gallery hours are Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday 12-5 p.m. and 6-8 p.m.; Friday 12-5 p.m.; Saturday and Sunday 1-5 p.m.; the gallery is closed Mondays.

The Suzanne Maria Rossetti Memorial Juried Art Contest is sponsored by Joe and Sue Hand of Dallas in memory of the daughter of Louise and the late Peter Rossetti of Saugus, MA. The contest is open to any 7th through 12th grade student who resides in, or attends any public, private, or parochial school within the school districts of Dallas, Lake-Lehman, Tunkhannock or Northwest, or any 7th-12 grade students who study art with any private instructor teaching within those areas.

Free CPR training course to be held February 28

Wyoming Valley Health Care System, in conjunction with the Luzerne County Division of the American Heart Association, will offer free adult CPR training courses Sat., Feb. 28 from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. in the TPS Medical Pavilion auditorium 468 Northampton Street, Edwarsville.

Of the 1,000 people who die each day from sudden heart attacks, the American Heart Association estimates that many can be saved through early intervention CPR (cardiopulmonary resuscitation).

These courses offer free first-time adult CPR training to residents of our community.

Following the three hour course, which includes instruction and "hands-on" technique, the American Heart Association will award a Heart Saver CPR card.

To register or for more information, please call 552-8632 or 1-800-838-WELL. Please specify the morning or afternoon session when registering.
