A tip of the hat to the PTSO Career Day Committee for producing a high quality program April 24. Career Day featured over 30 professions, both blue collar and white collar, with gender equity in almost every featured career. The PTSO has been working weekly since January to put together what turned out to be an enjoyable and educational program for students, faculty, parents and presenters. The committee consisted of Gail Gammage, Jill Kryston, Kathy Millington, Andrea Mittrick, Louise Olenik, Lori Popson, Sherry Riley and Kathy Samanas.

Thank you to all the PTSO parents who volunteered as hosts for Career Day. They are: Kathy Millington, Joanne Carpenter, Gail Gammage, Betsy Gaffney, Kathy Samanas, Sherry Riley, Jill Kryston, Janis Winter, Andrea Mittrick, Laurie Popson, Kathy Raub, Debbie VanHorn, Frances McOwen, Sharon Bartolini, Susan Potisek, Mary Kay Covert, and Vivian Bednarz. Special note to Sherry Riley. The Career Day name tags were beautiful. You do nice work!

The Dallas High School SADD Chapter is to be commended for the very powerful assembly which featured a mock funeral of a student who died in a drunk driving crash followed by Mrs. Edna Vivian speaking about the drunk driving crash which killed her daughter. Thank you Mrs. Vivian for sharing your most tragic story about your daughter's death in an attempt to save our student body from a DUI crash.

Also, thanks to Mrs. Lenore Rosencrans from County SADD who provided students from other SADD chapters to act out the role play. The person most responsible for the assembly is junior Nicole Gabel, SADD president. Great job Nicole!
