

Knights win, either way

When the Lake-Lehman Black Knights played the Blue Knights of Wyoming Seminary, you knew the Knights would win. Lehman won, 8-2. At far right, Lehman hurler Mike Hollos uncorked a pitch. He claimed the win, scattering eight hits and allowing only two runs. Center and near right, Ed Sichler taunted the Sem pitcher before stealing second.

Fish & Boat Commission urges training

For your information, the Pennsylvania Fish and Boat Commission, voted at its January meeting (PFBC Press Release 98-S-02) to move forward with a plan to require all operators of personal watercraft obtain and carry a boating safety education certificate in order to legally operate. This would apply to all persons regardless of age. Certificates are issued upon successful completion of an approved boating safety course. The Commission is encouraging operators to seek voluntary courses now in the event this becomes mandatory.

Newberry Ladies Golf organizes

The Chairman and Committee Members of the Newberry Estate Ladies' Golf League met recently to finalize plans for the opening league luncheon. It will be held at noon on Mon., May 18, at the Newberry Estate Appletree Terrace.

The purpose of the luncheon is to kick off the golf season and to acquaint anyone who is interested with Newberry's golf program. All Newberry Estate women are invited to attend the luncheon as is any woman who might be interested in joining a golf league, or even in playing golf.

Sue Demidovich is chairman of the ladies golf league. Luncheon committee members include Jeanne Elias and Dolores Leehan. For additional information or to make a luncheon reservation call Libby at the Newberry office, 675-5236. The deadline for reservations is May 11 and the luncheon cost of $12 per person is payable in advance.
