Lemmond to be guest of honor at spring breakfast

The 5th Republican Legislative District of Luzerne County will hold its annual spring breakfast May 9, beginning at 9 a.m., at the Irem Temple Country Club, Dallas. The public is invited and tickets are $10 per person. Reservations can be made by calling Tom Reese, Chairman, at 675-5929.

This year Senator Charles D. Lemmond will be the honored guest, representing the 20th Senatorial District.

A member of the Pennsylvania State Senate since 1985, Sen. Lemmond has shown a broad concern for the residents of his district and the state by sponsoring bills for judicial reform, criminal justice, election reform and the environment to name a few.

Sen. Lemmond also serves on a number of committees including the State Government Committee, State Judiciary Committee and the Committee on Finance, Military & Veterans Affairs and Rules.

The 20th Senatorial District includes the counties of Wyoming, Susquehanna, Wayne and Pike and parts of Monroe and Luzerne. There are 25 communities in Luzerne County from Franklin Township in the northeast to Nescopeck in the southwest represented by Senator Lemmond.

The breakfast is traditionally held prior to the upcoming spring election and annually draws close to 300 guests.

The setting offers an informal forum for candidates, committee persons and the general public to meet and speak with each other.

Contra dance offers American medley

Celts and cowboys; Cajuns and court musicians — they've all made their contributions to traditional American dancing. Now you can have an opportunity to enjoy dances that Americans have been enjoying for hundreds of years and see how this lively activity is thriving today.

This month's New England Contra Dance, co-sponsored by Chicory House and the Folklore Society, is planned as a "Dance Legacy" event. Ridge Kennedy, the caller will take dancers on a quick tour of traditional American dancing and its roots. You'll be an active participant in a "walking tour" with stops in England, New England, the southern Appalachians and Great Plains. The proceeds of this dance will benefit the local dance community and the national dance legacy archive at the University of New Hampshire.

The event takes place at the parish hall of St. Therese's Church, Pioneer Ave. in Shavertown, at 8 p.m. Sat., May 9.

Rehabilitated and ready for life.

Alfreda Bryce worried surgery for total knee replacement would keep her from doing the things she loves, especially gardening. Thanks to the rehabilitation therapy she received at Allied Services John Heinz Institute of Rehabilitation Medicine, Alfreda is back doing all the things she enjoyed before surgery. Her therapists helped Alfreda regain her range of motion, strength, balance, and most importantly, her independence... and her garden never looked better.
