

Back Mountain students to graduate from Seminary

Wyoming Seminary will celebrate its 154th commencement on May 30 and 31, as 107 seniors from around the world graduate from the Kingston school.

Baccalaureate services will be held at 5 p.m. Saturday in the Church of Christ Uniting, Market Street and Sprague Avenue, Kingston. Dr. Christopher Breiseth, president of Wilkes University, will deliver the baccalaureate address.

The baccalaureate service will be followed by the annual Board of Trustees dinner in honor of the graduating seniors.

On Sun., May 31, commencement exercises will be held in the school's Carpenter Athletic Center, North Maple Avenue, Kingston. Senior Michael Packard of Kingston has been chosen to give the student address; the charge to the graduates will be given by mathematics department chairperson O. Charles Lull of Kingston.

School president H. Jeremy

Packard will present awards and recognize the school's Cum Laude Society members; board chairman George B. Sordoni, will award diplomas.

The day will conclude with a reception for students and families on the front campus of the school, near the Nelson Bell Tower on Sprague Avenue.

The Geraldine Ruth Daley Anderson Scholarship was recognized at the recent Ninth Annual Scholarship Recognition Day brunch held at College Misericordia.

Carrie Hapeman, a senior occupational therapy student from Shavertown, received this year's scholarship, which is named for the late Geraldine Ruth Daley Anderson, wife of Dr. Robert S. Anderson of Wilkes-barre.

The scholarship, which Dr. Anderson established at Misericordia in 1990, is awarded to female Coughlin High School graduates who have demonstrated academic and leadership ability at Coughlin and have participated in athletic activities there.

The Scholarship Recognition Day is held each year to honor the founders of Misericordia's scholarship funds and the students who receive the scholarships.

More than 200 scholarship recipients, their families and scholarship trustees attended the event.

Lake-Lehman graduation schedule

Sem summer camps now accepting registration

Registration is now open for "Sem Summer '98." Wyoming Seminary's extensive summer program for primary, middle-school and high-school students throughout the region.

Programs for primary students (ages 4 to 10) will take place at Sem's Lower School campus in Forty Fort, where students will use the Macintosh computer laboratory, gymnasium, library and air-conditioned classrooms in a variety of fun and educational courses. Primary programs will run from June 29 through July 22. Students can register for one, two, three or all four weeks.

Middle school programs will be held at both Lower School campus in Forty Fort and the Upper School campus in Kingston. High school students will study at the Upper School campus.

Middle school and high school students can explore a special area of interest, get ready for the coming academic year, and prepare for college and university study. Courses in communications, the fine arts, history and government, languages and science and technology emphasize hands-on learning that's also fun. Summer courses are slated from June 29 through July 24; two week and four week courses are available.

Middle school and high school students who want an away-from-home experience this summer can live on the Kingston campus during summer programs. The school's spacious and comfortable residence halls, staffed by faculty and residence life assistants, will be home to a supervised, structured summer program that gives middle school students an experience that's different from camp and more like college.

Summer sports camps are also an important part of Sem Summer. Blue Knights Sports Camp is a six week camp that covers a wide range of co-ed sports and recreation. Campers can take one, two, or all six weeks of the sports camp, which begins June 22. Basketball camp for middle-school girls will take place June 15-19, while girls and boys in grades three through eight will learn soccer skills in a camp slated for June 29 - July 3. The Lady Blue Knights field hockey clinic will wrap up for the summer from August 3-7. For more information, or to register for summer programs contact Wyoming Seminary at 283-6067.
