Dallas Sisters of Mercy leadership team, to take office July 1, include, seated, Sisters Marie Parker, Catherine McGroarty (President), Mayon Sylvain and Mary Ellen Fuhrman (Vice President).

Sisters of Mercy elect new regional leadership team

During formal Assembly held recently, the Sisters of Mercy, Dallas Regional Community, elected a new leadership team to a four-year term of office. The four-person team, which includes Srs. Catherine McGroarty (President) Mary Ellen Fuhrman (Vice-President), Marie Parker (Councillor), and Mayon Sylvain (Councillor), will begin this ministry July 1.

A native of Wilkes-Barre, Sr. Catherine McGroarty entered the Sisters of Mercy in 1965.

She was a member of St. Mary's Parish and graduated from St. Mary's High School in Wilkes-Barre.

She currently serves as Dallas Regional Community Vice-President. Prior to community service, Sr. Catherine ministered in health care, first in nursing and then in hospital administration.

Sister Mary Ellen Fuhrman, a native of Steelton, PA, entered in 1965 upon graduation from Bishop McDevitt High School, Harrisburg. She presently serves on the Dallas Regional Community leadership team and as Director of Development.

Her ministry in education, both as teacher and principal, focused primarily on persons who are poor, particularly in Lancaster, PA and the South Bronx.

Sister Marie Parker entered the community in 1965 following graduation from St. Gabriel High School in Hazleton.

She currently serves as Director of Continuing Education, Mercy Health Partners, Northeast Region.

Sr. Marie served as teacher, principal and in formation of new members of the community.

A native of Guyana, Sr. Mayon Sylvain entered the Sisters of Mercy in 1974.

She currently serves as Regional Director, Health Span,

Nominations for environmental award now being accepted

On behalf of the NEPA Partners, the Pennsylvania Environmental Council, Northeast Office would like to announce that nominations are being accepted for the Eighth Annual NEPA

Environmental Partnership Awards. These awards are presented annually to individuals and/or organizations who, through partnerships, have achieved excellence in environmental protection or conservation in the following Northeastern Pennsylvania counties: Luzerne, Lackawanna, Wyoming, Bradford, Susquehanna, Wayne, Sullivan, Pike, Monroe, Carbon and Schuylkill. In presenting these awards, The NEPA Partners: Wilkes University, EDCNP, PEC NE Office, the World Future Society NEPA, and the Procter & Gamble Paper Products Company join together to recognize outstanding accomplishments and teamwork in protecting and conserving our environment.

Award Nominations: Nominations may be submitted by civic organizations, clubs, schools/districts, colleges/universities, local/county/state government, agencies, chambers of commerce, industrial development organizations, commercial businesses, or any other recognized local or regional organizations which support environmental protection or conservation achievements in the following areas: Agriculture/Silviculture; Business and Industry; Education; Science and Engineering; Environmental Community; Government and Civic Community.

In addition, nominations for the esteemed Fourth Annual Thomas P. Shelburne Environmental Leadership Award will be accepted. This award was established by the NEPA Environmental Partners to publicly recognize an individual who stands out for his or her long term commitment to environmental quality through their inspirational leadership, dedication, and commitment to partnering.

To receive nomination materials for the 1998 Environmental Partnership Awards, please contact Leonard Carlin, EDCNP at (717) 655-5581 or the PEC-NE office at (717) 408-4997. Nominations must be postmarked no later than July 17, 1998 or received at EDCNP no later than 5 p.m. on July 7. Award winners will be announced on August 7, 1998. Award presentations will be made during the PEC's annual program "An Evening for Pennsylvania's Environment" scheduled for October 1998. Award winners will be guests of Environmental Partnership Award Program Sponsors.
