The Wyoming Valley Catholic Youth Center will be holding an open house June 1-12. There will be special events and activities to introduce people to the Summer Day Camp Program. Mon.-Thurs. there will be a family swim from 7-9 p.m. free of charge.

On Wednesdays, June 3 and 10, arts and crafts will take place from 6-7 p.m. Also, on Fri., June 12, children ages 6 to 13 may enjoy a day at the CYC from 9 a.m.-3 p.m. free of charge. The day will be similar to a day at camp with gym activities, playground time, swimming and much more. There will also be contests and prizes.

Those who register for the 1998 Golden Summer Day Camp Program during open house will have the registration fee waived and receive a chance to win a CYC student membership, which will reduce the total cost of the camp.

The program begins Mon., June 15 and concludes Aug. 21. The camp runs Mon.-Friday, from 9 a.m.-3 p.m.

For working parents, the CYC has a Before Care Program from 7 to 9 a.m. and an After Care Program from 3 to 5:30 p.m. The theme for this year's camp is "Golden Summer Camp" to tie in with the Catholic Youth Center's 50th birthday year.

The 10 week program will have a special theme every other week to help the children celebrate the CYC's 50th year.

Some of the fun themes are a luau, a western, a 50/60's dance party, a carnival and Team Week.

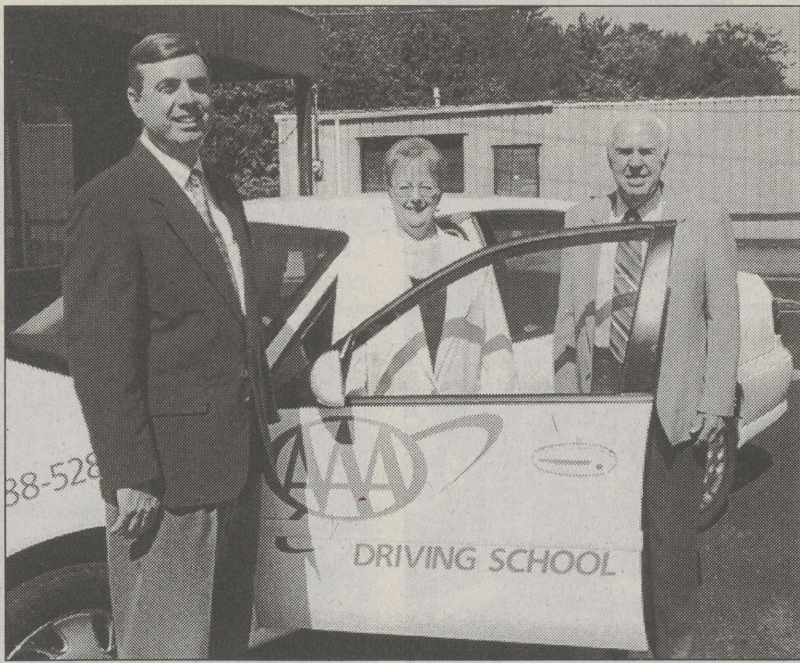

On June 26, campers will experience all of the fun and excitement of a Hawaiian luau complete with hula dancers and fire eaters, and the limbo. How low can you go?

The fun continues on July 1, Western Wednesday.

Horses and cowboys will be on hand to entertain the kids. And what western party would be complete without square dancing?

On July 17, bobby socks and white T-shirts will be the thing to wear.

A 50/60's Dance Party with a DJ spinning the oldies but goodies. Possible special guest appearance by none other than Elvis.
