Great escape

Lake-Lehman won its first girls soccer district title Saturday, holding off a late charge by Wyoming Valley West in a game played at Spartan Stadium. The Black Knights jumped out to a 3-1 lead in the first half, but the Spartans scored twice in the second half, and missed a penalty kick that would have tied the game. For Lehman, Kelly Spencer scored three times, twice off assists from Sara Kasper, and Jess Elston scored once. The Knights had only one more shot than Valley West, 12 to 11, and Lehman keeper Trish Pilosi recorded five saves. At left, Pilosi hung on to a Spartan corner kick, as Kristin Roberts blocked out a Spartan player. Below, Valley West's final goal snuck past Pilosi, making the score 4-3. In right photo, Janelle Perlis battled for a head.
