RICHARD'S ECONOMY MARKET TO OPEN

Dan Richards has leased the new building built by Stanley Marat next to the railroad station on Main Street, Dallas and will open Richards' Economy Market in its modern setting Thursday. Groceries and fresh produce will line the walls in attractive shelves and fresh meats and dairy products will be displayed in specially designed electrically refrigerated cases. Dan and three assistants will serve customers.

Dallas Borough School District has cut its liabilities in half in the last seven years, reducing its total debt from $64,931.43 in 1931 to an estimated $30,000 at conclusion of the fiscal year which ended yesterday. The borough district is in unusually sound financial condition, a review of its finances indicates, despite the apprehension over the delay in tax receipts.

SUBURBAN ADDS ADDITION FOR CUSTOMERS

Suburban Restaurant located at intersection of Harveys Lake and Tunkhannock Highways has been enlarged to accommodate more customers and set them in a pleasant atmosphere with windows overlooking the highways on both sides. Table space accommodates over 50 persons and counter space will seat 15.

Library Auction Committee has two life members Miss Frances Dorrance and Mrs. Fred Howell. Both women were largely responsible for the first library auction a project which was looked upon by the community in the light of a rummage sale until the returns from the auction were announced. Instead of the $1,000 which had been the goal, figures shot well past the $3,000 mark and the Library Auction at once became a summer fixture of Back Mountain life. Miss Marion Lathrop now living in Sun City, Ariz. was the first librarian.

BURNDALE RECREATION CENTER A SUCCESS

Dallas School Board directors adopted an annual budget for 1978/79 school year in total amount of $5,953,512 with a new tax millage of 90 mills and new occupational privilege tax of $10. Also financing the budget are an earned income tax of 1% shared 50/50 with the municipal governments, a real estate transfer tax of 1% also shared equally with the municipalities and a per capita tax of $10 at the June 26 meeting in Dallas Jr. High School auditorium. Budget is $27,686 less than the prior prepared budget since the state subsidy was previously overstated by 780 students.

The first week of the Rec Center located on Burndale Rd. was a great success. Approximately 450 children were present to enjoy the activities. Tennis courts are currently being resurfaced. Tennis lessons and tournaments will be announced as soon as the project is completed.
