Theatre-On-The-Green comes to Misericordia

Imagine the confusion: Two sets of identical twin boys, one pair born to a merchant family, the other pair to a servant family, are separated soon after birth. Each merchant son grows up with a servant son in separate cities, and when the boys are adults, they find themselves in the same city without knowing the other is there.

Mixin a wife, her sister, an aging father, an abbess, a Duke and some jewelry, and you William Shakespeare's "The Commedy of Errors.

This play, one of Shapespeare's earliest works, will be performed at the College's outdoor sound stage on July 10,11 and 12 at 8

A professional cast will perform the comedy, beginning at 8 p.m. each night.

Because this delightful play is not performed as often as some of Shakespeare's later comedies, it is not as well known to audiences, said Steven Sawicki, general manager of The National Players who is managing this year's Theatre-On-the-Green performance. This
