The Dodgers ended the regular season at the top of the standings when they beat the Yankees Thursday. They were scheduled to meet the Red Sox Tuesday night, weather permitting, in the playoff championship game. Results were not available in time for this issue. In action last week, top photo, The Dodgers Lauren Collini reached for the throw to second, too late to get Abby Fried. Above left, Yankees coach Jim Reino had a heart-to-heart with Jora Stern. Above right, Sophie Grossman decided a handoff to Kelly Corbett at second made more sense than a throw. Heather Fenaughty was backing up the play.

Phillies win championship behind Kapitula's 16 k's

Mark Kapitula fired a no-hitter, striking out 16 batters, as the Phillies won Back Mountain Baseball Inc.'s Major League championship with an 8-0 win over the Yankees Sunday night.

The Phillies jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the first, and added two more runs in the second. The Yankees didn't have a base runner until the third inning when Mark Koval walked. But he was tagged out at second attempting to steal. Frank Buzin walked with two out in the fourth, the only other Yankee to reach base.

On Friday, the Phillies won the National League championship with a 15-2 victory over the Reds, while the Yankees won the American League title, 7-4 over the Rangers.

The Phillies won their second consecutive championship and have won 46 consecutive games dating back to the 1996 season. Kapitula struck out the side in the first, second, fifth and sixth innings to earn the victory.

Eric Feinstein and Kapitula had two hits apiece in the championship game, while Mike Wills added a double. The Phillies scored 40 runs in three playoff games, while the pitching staff allowed just two hits in the three games.
