Teen trio exhibits their artwork

The drawings and paintings of three Back Mountain artists are being featured in an exhibit currently on display at the Berwick Hospital Center Art Gallery.

Laura Vodzak, Krystin Kopen and Helene Jayne are all advanced students of Dallas artist Sue Hand. All three are consistent prize winning competitors in art shows who will enter ninth grade this coming school year. Although only in their teens, they have a total of nearly 30 years art instruction.

Kopen of Shavertown is a student at Wyoming Seminary. The daughter of Dan and Kathy Kopen, Krystin is experienced in all fine art drawing and painting media and she enjoys plein air and miniature art as well as working in the studio on compositions three feet wide. She is a member of Pa. En Plein Air Society and Cider Painters of America.

Laura Vodzak is the daughter of John and Ann Vodzak of Dallas. A student at Dallas High School, she serves as a teaching assistant and artist's model at Sue Hand's
