GOH scouts earn Ad Altare Dei medals

On June 7, during the 38th Annual Religious Awards Ceremony, four Boy Scouts of Troop 232, Gate of Heaven Parish received their Ad Altare Dei Medals. The awards were presented to both Boy Scouts and Girls Scouts of the Scranton Diocese after 10:30 liturgy by the Most Reverend Bishop James C. Timlin at St. Peter's Cathedral in Scranton.

The boys completed a booklet meeting weekly from Sept. 1997 to March 1998 at Counselor's Dougal's home. The purpose of this program is to help Catholic Scouts of the Roman Rite develop a fully Christian way of life in a faith community.

The program was a manual with chapters based on the seven Sacraments. The seven Sacraments are primary means towards spiritual growth. It consisted of mazes, questions and answers, Faith Responses small service projects at the end of each section along with Sign off of participant and Counselor and a follow up including a Scoutmaster Conference and Scoutmaster's signature.

The boys did a physical service project cleaning a local cemetery of winter debris. They also were required to attend a retreat and the Ad Altare Dei board met with each individual participant prepared to answer questions, present small service projects, which took place in March and April at Bishop O'Reilly High School in Kingston.

Both Father Lambert, pastor of Gate of Heaven Church and Monsignor Van Loon of St. Ignatius Church, Kingston assisted the boys in preparation of this prestigious award.
