

Trip to St. Gabriel's Retreat House in Sept. for seniors

The August business meeting of the Back Mountain Senior citizens under Project Head met recently at St. Therese's Church in Shavertown.

Kay Hudak, vice president, presided in the absence of Lillian Soveroski, president, who is vacationing in Wyoming as the guest of her son, and in the State of Washington as the guest of Louise Mrochek.

Kaye Ray reported on publicity, and Irene Katyl on Fosco and Project Head.

On Sept. 24, Project Head will sponsor a Retreat at St. Gabriel's Retreat House.

The trip will cost $20 and includes bus transportation from the Wyoming Valley Mall, lunch and Retreat expense. The bus will leave the mall at 9:15 a.m. return around 4:30 p.m. For more information, call Mary Ann Daley at Project Head office.

The annual Project Head dinner/dance will be held Oct. 29 at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Luzerne. The Highlights Band will play at the dance. Registration begins at 11:30, with lunch being served at 12:30. Those members wishing to donate door prizes should contact Lillian Soveroski. More information will follow in September.

Marie and Ray Yuknavage will host the September birthday table, with honorees Kaye Ray, Irene Katyl, Florence Stella.

Hosting the August birthday table were Helen Misson and Florence Stella. The table featured depression glassware, a birthday cake and floral arrangement. Honorees were Ray and Marie Yuknavage, Ethel Baltrushes, Clara Paltrinieri and Ann Struko. 50/50 was won by Marie Yuknavage and Gertrude Miscavage.

Joseph and Florence Precone were welcomed back after a long absence due to illness.

Mr. Precone reminds members and friends that he is still in need of Sure-Fine labels, and the club will also accept used eyeglasses.

Marie Yuknavage announces that Sept. 4 is the deadline for money and menus to be in for the September Ya-Hoo show. For more information call Marie at 696-3095.

Recording secretary, Sophie Kapral has returned home after being a patient at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital, having submitted to surgery.

Nesbitt Nurses

Alumni hold reunion

The Nesbitt Memorial Hospital Nurses Alumni Association recently held a reunion at the Appletree Terrace, Newberry Estate, Dallas.

More than 130 alumni and guests attended the event in which the classes of 1943 through 1948 were honored. The class of 1948 celebrated their 50th year.

A highlight of the evening was a memorabilia display and the announcement that alumni members who served in the armed forces will be recognized at the newly constructed Women's Armed Services Memorial in Washington, D.C.

Dorothy Wadas, Shavertown; Irene Davies, Dallas and Nancy Roberts, Kingston Twp., were present.

BMT students participate in Bravo! Dance this summer

While many area children spent the past week shopping for school clothes and enjoying the last days of summer vacation, Bravo! Dance students spent the week in the studio studying a variety of dance forms with Bravo!'s talented faculty. Younger students experienced classes in Ballet, Character and Jazz, while more advanced students attended classes every day from 1:30 to 5:30 in Ballet, Pointe, Modern, Character and Jazz.

Dancers from the Back Mountain participated in the program. Many of the students had not experienced Modern or Character dance classes before. "I really liked the classes," said Whitney Adams of Dallas. "There are very few, if any, dance schools around here that offer this kind of program." Dancers from the Back Mountain attending the classes were: Hillary Adams, Mariel Adams, Whitney Adams, Alyse Benoit, Catherine Sullivan, Elizabeth Sullivan, Kasia Szulborski, Kira Szulborski and Jaimie Verazin.

Bravo! dance is directed by Trinette Singleton, former principal dancer with the Joffrey Ballet, and current instructor with the Joffrey Ballet School, NYC. Dance Camp instructors were Singleton, Marjorie Adams (Ballet), Andrew Buleza, (Character), Kathli-Jo Hubner (Modern & Jazz) and Lynne Mariani (Jazz and Ballet).

Classes in all levels are forming at Bravo! for the fall. Please call 826-0028 and leave a message.
