

Tree Workshop to be held at park

A Project Learning Tree Workshop will be held on Sun., Oct. 4 at Frances Slocum State Park from 9 a.m.-3 p.m. PLT is a supplemental curriculum which uses forests as windows to the world. The project guide is filled with activities relating to plants, trees, diversity, wildlife and natural systems.

For more information or to register, call 696-9105. Preregistration is required and enrollment is limited-call now. There is no charge for this workshop. If you are a person with a disability and you wish to participate in any of the programs, contact Kathy Kelchner at 696-9105. Pennsylvania AT&T Relay Service 1-800-654-5984.

Lake Township seeks volunteers

The Voluntary Recycling Center for Lake Township operates the second Saturday of each month. Hours are 10 a.m.-12 noon in the township garage located on Route 29. Items accepted are: aluminum and bi-metal cans, clear, brown and green glass, plastic #1 and #2 only (no motor oil containers) and newspapers.

Beginning Sept. 12, newspaper will be collected the same day as other items. Regular items will be collected monthly and newspapers will be collected bi-monthly.

Volunteers are needed to help with various jobs. Interested Scout groups, youth groups, service organizations and residents can offer a few Saturdays a year by calling 477-3383.

Sem students named to Peer Group

Back Mountain students at Wyoming Seminary's Upper School have been named to the school's Peer Group by Karen Klassner, Dean of Students. These students, who represent a cross-section of the Seminary student body, meet monthly with Dean Klassner and Chaplain William Summerhill to discuss issues of concern to the overall life of the Sem community, and to plan programs and projects which will have a positive influence on the school.

Since its creation over seven years ago, Peer Group has helped the school deal with issues such as racism, alcohol and drug abuse, and academic integrity. This year's Peer Group members from the Back Mountain are Kyle Droppers, Aaron Katyl, Timothy O'Donnell, David Ryan, Paul Santarelli, Sapan Talati, Alana Anzalone, Ashley Feldman and Kourtney Koslosky.

Coaching in the classroom

The Dallas Football Team has found a way to give back to the community schools that helped raise them. The team has initiated an Adopt-A-Homeroom program in which members of the team meet and read with elementary students daily.

"Every day five of us go to either Westmoreland Elementary or Dallas Elementary during our flex period," said Chris Tucker, senior. "We will read to the kids. It's something to give back to the community."

On Monday, Tucker, Ben Russoniello, Kyle Wicht and Bill Duda

came to Westmoreland Elementary and ate lunch with first graders. Three of the football players attended Westmoreland. "Do you remember these chairs?," Russoniello asked Tucker as he plopped down on a cushioned chair in the main office.

The team members alternate each day and are only allowed to take one car to each school. "The principal (Frank Galicki) doesn't want a bunch of cars running around," explained Tucker.
