Dallas 17, Hanover 7

A tough Dallas defense led the Mountaineers over Hanover Saturday, Sept. 19. Dallas scored 10 points in the second quarter, first on a 32-yard field goal by Matt Douglas, followed by a 53-yard pass play from Matt Barnard to Chris Tucker. Hanover came back for a touchdown on the first drive of the second half, but it was too little, too late. JUNIOR FOOTBALL

Raiders A wins third game of season, 13-6

The Raiders A Football Team, behind a total team effort on both sides of the ball, won a hard fought 13-6 victory over a tough Larksville squad Sunday. The win improved the A-Team's season record to 3-1.

Stephen Salavantis took the second play from scrimmage off tackle and rambled 60 yards for a touchdown. Salavantis split the uprights on the point after kick, giving the Raiders the early lead. Then, for the second week in a row, the Raiders offense successfully moved the ball but came up short in the red zone. The Raiders defense yielded very few yards during the first half and the score remained 7-0 at the intermission. The Raiders mounted a nice drive in the third quarter and Salavantis punched it in the end zone from the one yard line to give the Raiders a 13-0 lead. The 2-point attempt was no good.

The Greenwaves rebounded with a score of their own, cutting the lead to 13-6 with about four minutes remaining in the game. The Raiders defense stopped the last offensive effort of Larksville to preserve the win. The Raiders next opponent is Lake-Lehman 4-0. The game will take place at the Dallas High School field Sunday at 3 p.m.
