CROP Walk to aid local food banks October 11

CROP Walk '98 is coming and the outcome will help determine the relative health of area food banks. The fund raising event, sponsored by Church World Service will raise dollars in proportion to the number of persons walking and money pledge to each walker. Of each dollar pledged, 25 percent stays in local communities to help the on-going work of 12 local food banks including the Back Mountain Food Bank. The other 75 percent of monies raised will be used in world wide efforts to alleviate hunger.

Everyone is welcome to participate. Among the walkers will be persons from the following churches: Trinity Presbyterian, Prince of Peace Episcopal, Gate of Heaven and the United Methodist Churches at Trucksville and Shavertown. Contact your local church or Wyoming Valley Council of Churches for registration forms (823-8543). CROP Walk '98 be-
