The Haunted Barn now open in Lehman

The Haunted Barn in Lehman celebrating its 16th year of haunting innocent patrons is now open.

Since the inception of the Haunted Barn, walls have shifted and have been lifted, floors have been added, ceilings have been lowered and thrills have been carefully choreographed. This year the preshow area has changed, every outside walkway and waiting area received a new roof and new walls, and several gruesome displays were added such as "The Guillotine". All of this to keep our visiting victims screaming, warm and happy. It all promises to be a real hit with anyone brave enough to enter the building.

You can take "the journey" on Oct. 15-18, 22-25 and 29-31 from 7-11 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays and from 7-10 p.m. all other nights.

Your $5 admission benefits the Lehman UMYF, the Lehman Volunteer Fire Co., the Lake-Lehman Chorus and the Wyoming Valley Children's Aid Fund. Discount coupons are available at many local retailers.

Call the Spook Line 674-5420 for Ghost Stories and further information on the Haunted Barn. Check our web page at: <http://www.dawenet.com/haunted> The web page includes more information, directions and maps.
