Scary twist on an old favorite

Children of all ages will be delightfully "frightened" when they see the Music Box Players' children's show: Hansel and Gretel's Fright Night! - an original musical with book and lyrics by Debbie Zehner and music by Linda Houck. First performed as Hansel and Gretel Hide and Go Shriek in 1996, the German kids and their scary sidekicks return in a revised version with some new "tricks and treats", especially apt for Halloween. This time around, children are invited to wear their favorite Halloween costumes, and prizes will be awarded at the end of each performance.

Hansel and Gretel's Fright Night will be held at the Music Box Dinner Playhouse, 196 Hughes Street, Swoyersville, on Oct. 30 and 31. Friday performances are at 6 p.m., Saturdays at 1 and 5 p.m.

Hansel and Gretel will be played by Michael Gallagher and Debbie Zehner. Kevin Costley will appear as Dracula, Ron Araya as Frankenstein, Tim Swanson as King Kong, and Kate Kerrigan as the Headless Horsewoman. The 'Party' ghosts will be portrayed by Dale Houck, Adam Orseck, Rachel Smith, and Allison Taroli.

Tickets are now on sale for all performances and the price of admission ($7.50) includes a McDonald's Fun Meal (Hamburger, fries, and soft drink), served to all audience members before each show. Group rates are available for groups of 10 or more.

Call the Music Box box office at 283-2195 or 1-800-698-PLAY for reservations. Visa, Mastercard or Discover are required when making reservations by phone. For more information, visit the Players' website at: www.musicbox.org.
