

Mary Kozlek is part of EMS program

Mary Kozlek of Shavertown, a senior at Franklin & Marshall College, is participating in the St. Joseph Hospital Emergency Medical Preceptorship Program.

Sponsored by Franklin & Marshall's Office of Pre-Healing Arts and St. Joseph Hospital, this program offers students the opportunity to observe the evaluation and treatment of patients in an emergency situation. Students are matched with a member of the nursing staff as well as an emergency services physician. This year-long program requires students to commit to weekly two-hour shifts and a total of approximately 30 hours. The program is open to all Franklin & Marshall students.

Kozlek, a 1996 graduate of Wyoming Seminary, is the daughter of Mary and Dr. Thomas Kozlek, Shavertown.

Solorzano honored by National Hispanic Recognition Program

Adriana Solorzano of Shavertown, a senior at Wyoming Seminary, has been recognized as an Honorable Mention Finalist in the National Hispanic Recognition Program.

Solorzano is one of only 3,000 Hispanic students in the nation recognized by the program, out of 150,000 students eligible nationwide.

ADRIANA SOLORZANO

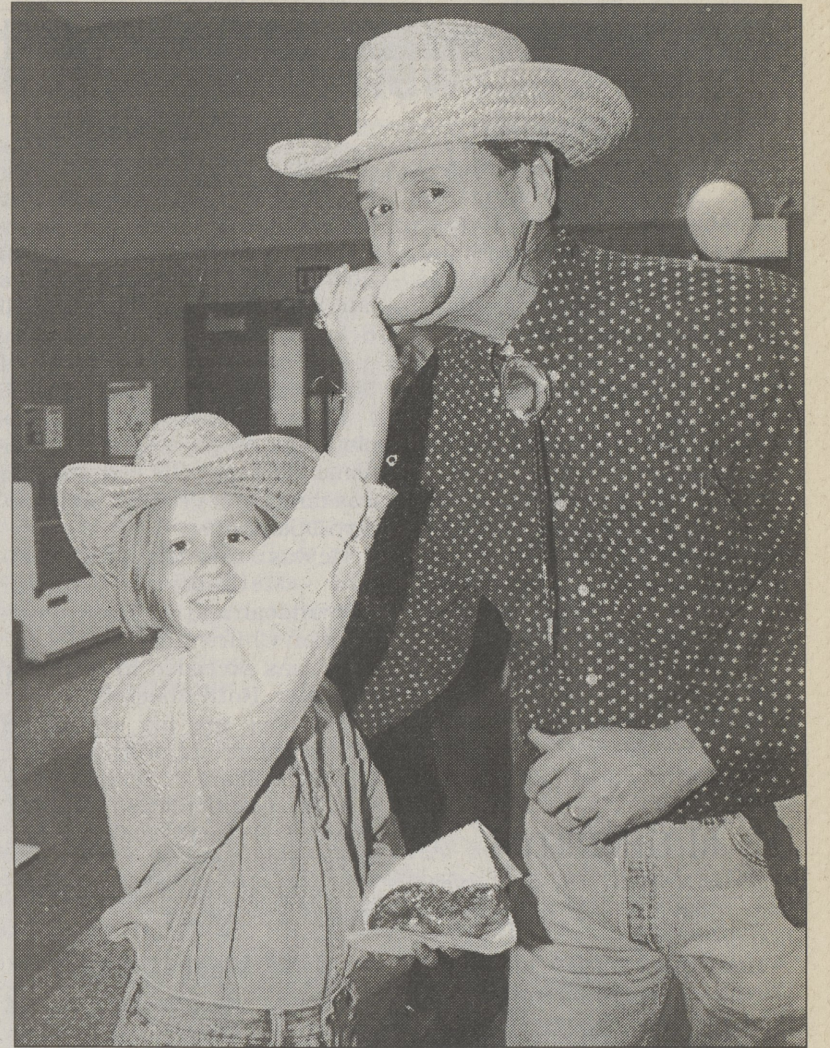

The program, administered by the College Board, provides national recognition of the exceptional academic achievements of Hispanic high-school seniors, and identifies academically well-prepared Hispanic seniors for colleges and universities.

From more than 150,000 students nationwide, the 4,000 highest-scoring students are initially identified as semifinalists. Based on further evidence of their academic achievement, a select group of 3,000 are recognized as program finalists.

Solorzano, the daughter of Mrs. Madeline Solorzano of Shavertown, is captain of Sem's varsity tennis team, and is a member of the school's AIDS Awareness group, Environmental Club, and International Club.

Featured in Who's Who Among American High School Students, she is active in community service.

She organized the "Reaching Out for Warm Hands" project, which collected more than 1,200 items of winter clothing for the needy in the Wyoming Valley area.

DM students draw for environment

Recently all the science students at the Dallas Middle School had the opportunity to participate in a statewide poster contest "Recycle Pennsylvania." The posters were judged on creativity and theme by members of the middle school's science and art departments. The 20 winning posters were sent to the Department of Education where they will be judged by a panel of distinguished artists and educators, from across the Commonwealth. Winning artwork will appear in the 1998 Recycle Pennsylvania Calendar.
