followed by a bucket apiece by Jaime Sulewski and Katie Tomek, while holding III Guy's Rosalyn Wentko to three points and a 10-3 Penn State lead after one quarter. Thomas was in control of the second quarter with nine points, followed by Nicole Bostock four points, Laura Stark and Sulewski a bucket apiece. The strong Penn State Seed defense held III Guy's scoreless to help open the lead at the half 27-3. Stark had four third quarter points, followed by a bucket apiece by Thomas and Sulewski. III Guy's Wentko hit for four points, Meredith Lacey and Sylena Marino went for a bucket apiece to trail 35-11 after three quarters. Lacey mounted a fourth quarter come back attempt with 10 points for III Guy's, while Penn State Seed countered with three points from Bostock and two big points by Melissa Novitski to end the game 40-21, Penn State Seed. Leading the offense for Penn State Seed was Thomas with a game high 17 points, Bostock seven points, Stark and Sulewski six points apiece and Tomek and Novitski two points each. Ashley Razawich played a good defensive game for Penn State Seed. III Guy's Pizza was led by Lacey 12 points, Wentko seven points and Marmo two points. III Guy's defense was led by Kara Ringler, Katie Smith and Lauren Noreika.

Dallas Rotary 34 - Back Mountain Leader 33

Sherry Senausky's 20 points keyed a one point Dallas Rotary victory over Back Mountain Leader. Rachel Kukosky led the scoring in the first quarter with five points including a three pointer for Back Mountain Leader.

Senausky kept the defensive first quarter close with a bucket and Susan Banks was one for one at the free throw line to end the first quarter 5-3 Back Mountain Leader. Kelly Brzozowski had five second quarter points including a three point bucket and Senausky followed with two points. Kukosky had six second quarter points to keep the lead at the half 11-10 Back Mountain Leader. The third quarter belonged to Senausky as she controlled the game with eight big points, followed by a bucket apiece by Brzozowski and Krista Carpenter, Jonelle Dickson and Kukosky nailed five points apiece to trail Dallas Rotary for the first time 22-21. Once again in the fourth quarter Senausky controlled the game with the inside game and eight more points, with Brzozowski and Mallory Carey hitting a bucket each opening up a nine point lead at one time in the fourth quarter 32-23. Kukosky tried to mount a come back with 10 fourth quarter points including two more three pointers and Dickson followed with two points, falling one short of the victory 34-33. Also contributing offensively for Dallas Rotary was Brzozowski with nine points, followed by Carpenter and Carey two points apiece and Banks one point. Dallas Rotary's defense was led by Nicole Macri and Lauren Macri. Back Mountain Leader was led by Amanda Coleman, Samantha Simmonette and Julena Hains. The win puts Dallas Rotary at three wins and two losses and in second place after the first half of the regular season.
