Amy Pack and Stephanie Yeung honored for volunteerism

Amy Pack, eighth grade, was named the Dallas Middle School volunteer of the year in the Prudential Spirit of Community Awards program recently. In addition, Stephanie Yeung, eighth grade received a Certificate of Merit for her volunteer community service.

Sponsored by Prudential and the National Association of Secondary School Principals, the awards recognize outstanding community service. Pack is now eligible for the Pennsylvania youth volunteer of the year awards. Two State Honorees, one middle-level and one high-school student will each receive a $1,000 award, a silver medallion, and travel to Washington, D.C., for recognition ceremonies with one parent or guardian in May. Other Honorees may receive bronze medallions or Certificates of Excellence.

At the Washington event, 10 National Volunteers of the Year will be named by a national panel of judges, each receiving an additional $5,000, a gold medallion, and a crystal trophy for his or her school.

Pack is being recognized for her volunteer work as a candystriper at the Meadows Nursing Home. Yeung is a candystriper at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital.

Anthony Martinelli, principal of the Dallas Middle School praised the students for the volunteer service.

Martinelli said, "These young ladies have distinguished themselves through their volunteer service. Our school community is very proud of their efforts. They are also excellent students."

State Honorees will be named in February.

The Prudential Spirit of Community Awards are supported by the American Association of School Administrators, the Council of the Great City Schools, the National Middle School Association, the National School Boards Association, the National School Public Relations Association, National 4-H council and Girl Scouts of the U.S.A.

Gate of Heaven accepting kindergarten applications

Mrs. Mary C. Tighe, Principal, announces that registration for Kindergarten classes for the school year 1999-2000 will be held in the lobby of Gate of Heaven School on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 19, 20 and 21 from 9 - 11 a.m.

Eligible students must be five years of age by Sept. 30, 1999 and present proof of all required immunizations.
