

Students make like Milli Vanilli

The sound of screaming high school students rang through the Lake-Lehman High School auditorium as the annual Lip Sync contest was held last Friday.

Acts such as Madonna, The Backstreet Boys, and Marilyn Monroe (played by Allison Kehler) were featured by the students in some of the craziest costumes.

From poodle skirts to flashy suits, the honorable mentions were: The Backstreet Boys (Chris Crawford, Jarrod Dalley, Nick Long, Sam Saylor, and Brent Stransky); Britney Spear (Carrie Gordon, Holly Schwiezer, Erin Warner, and Shelly Wentzel); and "Shoop" (Carrie Houssock and Laura Mitchell).

Third place went to "Calendar Girl" (Tina Baigis, Maria Dobinick, Kristen Evans, Leigh Ann Isaac, Jen Johnstone, Paul Kapral, Becky Kaufman, Allison Kehler, Tricia Kernag, Leah Matussek, Maura Narkiewicz, Stacy Novak, and Christina Royer).

Second place went to the "Madonna Medley" (Alyson Bevan, Katie Britt, T.J. Dougherty, Josh Gregg, Janel Janiczek, Arlette Klein, Leigh Kosloski, Nick Leonard, Steve Moyer, Mike Niezgod, Mandi Race, Jenn Schwiezer, and Jackie Scott).

First place was a tie between Shania Twain (Becky Keefe, Jen McCall, and Jen Naugle), and Elvis (Joe Hardisky).

Senior Chris Crawford, one of the Backstreet Boys, commented on how much effort was needed to pull it off. "I had everyone over at my house (last night); we even watched their video."

Coordinator and teacher Gail Meeker seemed satisfied with the show. "It was a very entertaining assembly that showcased the diversity and musical tastes, talents and abilities of the students at Lake-Lehman," she said.

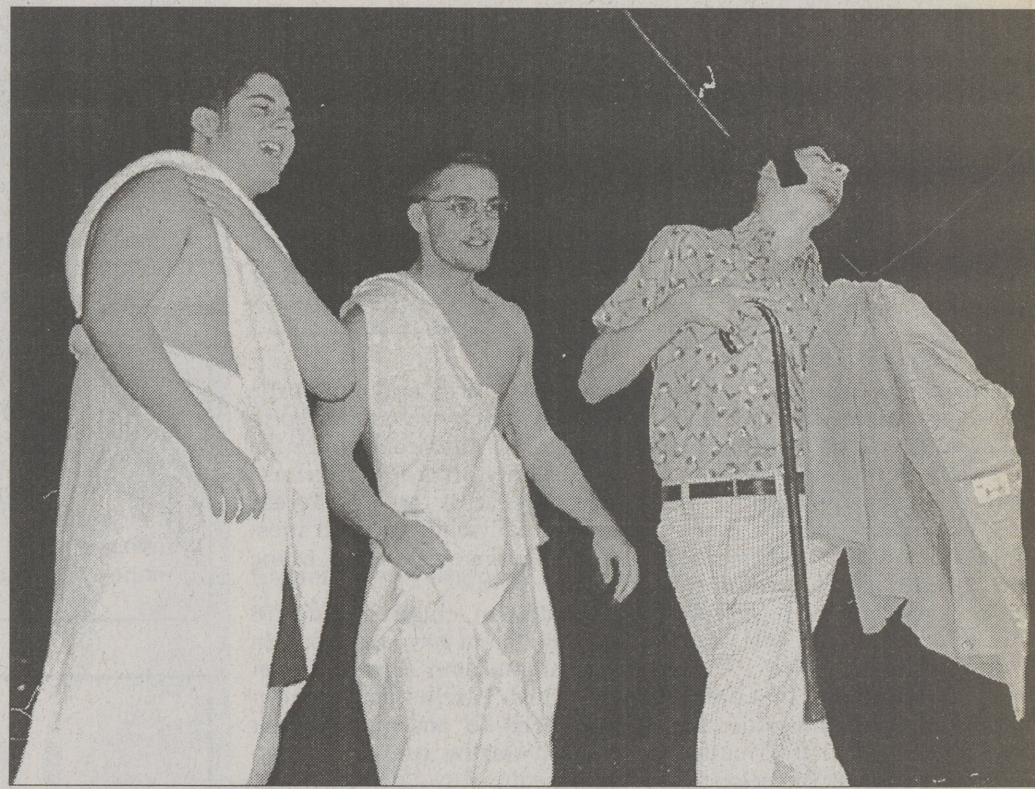

Janet Schweizer, puttin' on the ritz.

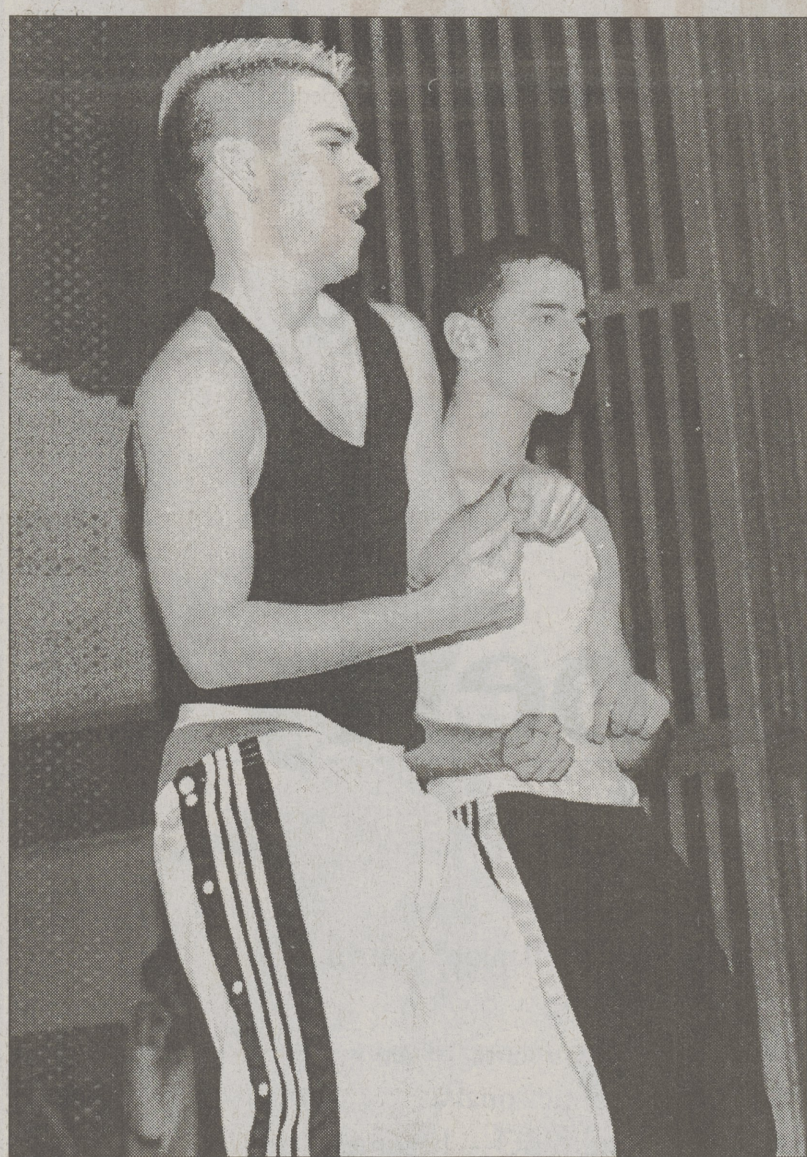

In a tie for 1st place, Sam Saylor with Becky Keefe, as Shania Twain.

Tom Pentangelo, Chris Navin and Iex Lamoreaux, sort of dressed up.
