Jobson is seeing several specialists and is receiving treatment for his illness. He is remaining positive about his prognosis. Several benefits were conducted on his behalf and he is very appreciative for the kindness and generosity extended to him by his friends, family and community.

Jobson lives at home with his wife, Sharon. The couple has a two year old daughter, Katie. All proceeds will be given to the family.

Donations for adults $10; and children under 10 years of age $3. Takeouts are available.

Daffodil Days flowers can be ordered until March 4

The 26th annual Daffodil Days is just around the corner. Over 200 volunteers in the Wyoming Valley will help with the sale of 300,000 daffodils. The daffodil, which the American Cancer Society terms "the flower of hope" symbolizes hope in the fight against cancer. What better way to put a smile on the face of someone you care for and at the same time put hope in the hearts of many cancer patients.

The flowers will be sold through pre-orders from now until March 4. Daffodils may also be purchased through direct sales at local businesses, organizations and the Wyoming Valley Mall, March 18-19. Cost is $5 per bunch of 10 daffodils. All proceeds from the sale will help the American Cancer Society's programs in cancer research, education and patient services. For further information call your local unit of the American Cancer Society at 825-7763.
