

Last fling in the old school

The Westmoreland School Carnival drew a larger than expected crowd as nearly 2,000 people gathered for a day of fun and games. Dozens of volunteers gave their free time to make the carnival a success. Truckville Fire and Ambulance personnel were on hand to help direct traffic and assist with parking vehicles. Contributions were accepted from 32 area businesses and KRZ's Tookie Bird distributed coloring books and crayons to the children. "Everyone had a great time," said Theresa Dennis of the Westmoreland School PTO, who organized the event. In photos, clockwise from above: Chelsea Coslett gave Katlyn Moran a peek at her painted cheek; Cindy Taylor, Lorena Langan, Tania Reinert and Kathleen Parrish doled out the eats; Danielle Harding tried her hand at a game; Amanda Young kept the corn poppin'; Christian Hilstolsky checked out a bigmouth; Mike Fasulka amused his mom, Bonnie; Marian Heintz and her daughter Theresa stirred up some cotton candy.
