

DeRemer announces run for county Recorder of Deeds

Republican, Robert DeRemer announced his candidacy for Luzerne County Recorder of Deeds.

Mr. DeRemer attended Luzerne High School prior to entering the U.S. Navy. He is married to Mary Ellen Yachew of Swoyersville. They have two grown children, Robert Jr. of Evans Falls and Michelle of New York City. They have one grandchild, Robert III.

Robert DeRemer is the former owner of Dallas One Hour Cleaners and is presently the owner of DeRemer Realty in Dallas. "As a licensed real estate broker, I have to research deeds, mortgages and maps that are recorded in the office. I feel this knowledge makes me well qualified for the office of Recorder of Deeds," said DeRemer.

Mr. DeRemer would like to put all public records in the Recorder's office on computer. "This would give easy, user friendly access when needed," he said.

Fun with music

Students from the chamber music program at Wyoming Seminary visited Dallas Elementary School recently to introduce children to music in an "Instrument Petting Zoo." Sem students demonstrated their instruments, and curious Dallas youngsters were able to hold instruments and take a stab at playing. In top photo, Tom Youells held Dan Mariner's tuba as Megan Youells waited her turn. Below left, Laura Jehl showed an oboe to Maria Moss. Jason Schilling, below, got a close look at Ben Warrington's cello.

Shouldn't your advertising be, too?

Would you canvass neighborhoods that aren't in your voting district? Of course not. So, why spend precious advertising dollars to reach people who can't vote for your candidate? That's what happens when you use radio, television or city newspapers. But not with The Dallas Post.

The Dallas Post is all local, all the time. And our readers are among the most involved and active in the region. So, when you get their vote you might also get their influence on friends and neighbors.

Don't waste your precious advertising budget on people who live in Wilkes-Barre, Pittston or Mountaintop. Call today for our low rates and other information.

healthcare just for kids

Children are not just small adults.

They have different bodies, emotions, and needs. So when they're sick, you count on doctors who are specialists in caring for kids. Our pediatricians understand the common as well as the uncommon illnesses affecting children—from newborns to young adults. They are conveniently located in your community and staff our pediatric unit at the Penn State Geisinger Wyoming Valley Medical Center. They are linked with the vast resources of our two outstanding children's hospitals. This means quicker recoveries, fewer hospital visits, and ultimately, better health. It's healthcare just for kids. To find a Penn State Geisinger pediatrician or pediatric specialist, call the CareLine at 1-800-243-1455.
