the Knights off an assist from Sara Rittenhouse. Trish Pilosi recorded seven saves.

TENNIS

Sem 6, Dallas 1

John Winter and Chris Tucker won a doubles match for the lone Dallas win. Winter took his singles match to three sets.

Valley West 5, Dallas 2

John Winter was the lone singles winner for the Mounts, and then he joined with Chris Tucker to win a doubles match 6-1, 6-2. None of the other matches were close.

Crestwood 6, Lehman 1

Dan Nygren won a hard-fought singles match 6-4, 7-5 as the only bright spot for Lehman. Andy Weaver took his match to a third set.

Dallas 6, Hanover 1

Dallas won all four singles matches and 2-of-3 doubles. The Mounts lost only 10 games combined in the singles matches.

Sem 7, Lehman 0

No matches went to three sets and Sem handed the Knights a goose egg.

Freedom 1 -

Capitol Area Lions 1

Bethlehem already eliminated both teams before Saturday's game but pride was on the line nevertheless. Freedom traveled to Harrisburg with only 10 players but the U-12 Girls representatives from the Back Mountain fought valiantly. Down 1-0 late in the first half, Freedom got the equalizer when Christine Bustin one-timed a Jillian Seeley corner kick past the Lion's keeper. Despite being a player down and facing a stiff second-half wind, Freedom stood toe-to-toe with the Lions to earn a hard fought draw. Freedom and Capitol Area both finish state cup play with records of 0-1-1

Nanticoke 15, Lehman 6

The Black Knights never got untracked, as the Trojans added insult to injury with a six-run sixth inning. Greg Woronko started and took the loss, giving up five hits and five runs in three innings. Chad Sorber was the only Lehman player to get two hits, including a double. Woronko hit a solo home run.

Dallas 4, Hanover 1

The Mounts stopped previously unbeaten Hanover at home Monday, as Randy Knappman and John Habrack combined for a three-hitter. Knappman started and went four innings, giving up a hit and a run while striking out five. Habrack gave up two hits and struck out seven in the final three innings. J.J. Smith went 2-for-3 with an rbi. Knappman was 1-for-3 with an rbi.

Lehman 6, Dallas 5

It was a wild one when the Dallas Mountaineers traveled across town to meet Lehman on the diamond April 15. The Black Knights took a 3-0 lead after three innings, and seemed to be cruising to victory until Dallas scored five times in the top of the sixth. But Lehman didn't fold, coming back with three runs in the bottom of the seventh to walk away with the win.

Paul Kapral stroked a single, his second hit of the game, to send home Greg Woronko with the winning run. Woronko had singled in the first run of the inning, and Rich Patton drove in the second before Kapral's heroics against a weary John Habrack. Lehman had jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the second when Kapral doubled, went to third on a wild pitch and scored on an error. Jake Rambus, who had reached on that play, scored on a single by Matt Loftus. Patton homered in the third and winning pitcher Matt Montgomery kept the Mounts at bay until the sixth inning, when Dallas scored five unearned runs after a Lehman error. Chuck Fehlinger drove in two and Chris Banks hit a two-run home run in the inning.

Montgomery ended the game having given up six hits and struck out five. Habrack struck out 13, but gave up nine hits.

Lehman 3, Wyo. Area 2

It wasn't easy, but the Knights pulled out the win. D.J. Kapson went 2-for-4 and scored two runs, including the winning tally in the top of the seventh. Greg Woronko went the distance, giving up five hits and striking out six.

SOFTBALL

Lehman 1, GAR 0

The Lady Knights came out on top in a pitchers' duel that saw the teams combine for only eight hits. Michelle Alters pitched 5 1/3 scoreless innings, giving up only two hits and striking out eight to claim the win. Tricia Kernag cleaned things up, allowing one more hit and striking out three. Jen Johnstone stroked a double. Colleen Mahon scored the only run after singling, stealing second and being driven home by Vicki Groff's single in the third inning.

Wyoming Area 4, Dallas 1

The Mounts pounded out nine singles, but couldn't put them together to make a run. Sherri Kuderka went 3-for-4 and Kristyn Race was 2-for-4. Sarah Stolarick gave up seven hits in taking the loss.

Lehman 5, Hoban 3

Tricia Kernag scattered three hits and struck out five and walked none over seven innings to pick up the win. The Knights scored twice in the first and third innings and once in the fifth, while getting only two hits all game. Colleen Mahon smashed a triple.

Lehman 5, Nanticoke 1

Michelle Alters tossed a 3-hitter and struck out five, while going 2-for-3 at the plate. Tricia Kernag also went 2-for-3 with a double.

VOLLEYBALL

Lehman 2, Meyers 0

Nate Walters had 13 assists and a pair of aces. Tom Brislin hit 11 service points and Eric Messerle had four kills as Lehman stayed unbeaten against the Mohawks.

GOH wins Catholic League title

The Gate of Heaven 6th Grade Girls Basketball Team recently captured the championship of the 1998-99 East West Catholic 5th and 6th Grade League. The team swept through the regular season with a perfect 14-0 record. In the post season tournament, they went 3-0, defeating Regis Academy in the championship game. The team placed 2nd in a highly competitive Dallas Youth Basketball Tournament, losing twice to eventual winner Wyoming Valley West. The girls also came in 2nd in the Gate of Heaven 6th Grade Tournament. The team is coached by Mary Durr, Ken Krogulski and Dave Whalen.

MVP and completed the season with 79 strikeouts over 42 innings. His record was 7-0. "Major League scouts were at every game Habrack pitched," said Bittner. "He may be drafted right out of high school as a free agent. Many colleges have also shown interest in him."

Other key players for Dallas include Jeremy Harris, J.J. Smith, Josh Dukas, Chuck Fehlinger, and Randy Knappman. Harris is hitting leadoff as a freshman. Smith was All-Scholastic in his sophomore and junior years and Dukas is very strong offensively. "Dukas is ripping the ball," proclaimed Bittner. Fehlinger hits cleanup and is a co-captain. "Knappman is our versatile guy. He played first base in the first game, pitched in the second game, caught in the third, and DH'd in Major League scouts from the Dodgers, Yankees, Reds, Astros, Twins, Angels, Brewers, Arizona and Indians have been in attendance at Dallas games.

"As it looks right now, each kid has been talking to colleges. Every senior from last year went on to play for college," Bittner said.

We'll have to wait and see if Bittner's prediction will come true, and if it does; who will win, but one thing is certain; both teams have plenty to be proud of.
