

Taxes due in Lehman

Lehman Township Tax Collector, Peggy Moyer, reminds all property owners and residents that face value on 1999 county/municipal property and per capita tax bills will end on Tuesday, June 1. All payments made prior to the close of the tax collector's office hours, and those which arrive postmarked on or before the June 1 deadline will be accepted at face value.

If a receipt is desired, please enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope.

Office hours for the end of face value will be May 25 through 28 and June 1 between the hours of 10 a.m. and 5 p.m.

St. Frances hosting Memorial Day picnic

A bake sale and tent picnic will be held on the church grounds at St. Frances Cabrini Church, Mount Olivet Road, on Memorial Day, May 31, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Mass will be celebrated at the church at 10 a.m. for all who have been buried at Mount Olivet Cemetery. Following the Mass, home-baked goodies and homemade foods like clam chowder, pork barbecue, wimpies, haluski, desserts and beverages will be sold. All are welcome. Takeouts will be available. The picnic is being prepared by the Parish Social Committee.

Volunteers' efforts benefit Food Pantry

The Letter Carrier's Food Drive held on May 8 was a great success once again. Back Mountain residents were very generous in their donations of food, postal employees tireless in transportation donations to a drop off location on a rainy day and church volunteers energetic in sorting and re-packing the many items. In total 165 boxes of food were carried to the Back Mountain Food Pantry. Our thanks is extended to the community, the letter carriers and volunteers for their generosity. Pictured are a few of the many volunteers who helped in this project: From left, Harold Roberts, Devin Michael (Trucksville UMC); Mary Llewellyn (St. Therese's Roman Catholic Church); Bill Palmer, Jonathan Meehan, Brian Tupper (Trucksville UMC) and Bill Ostrum (St. Paul's Lutheran Church).

'Themes' art exhibit in Dallas

Several Back Mountain artists will exhibit their artwork at the 2nd Annual Themes Show Exhibit at Sue Hand's Imagery, 35 Main St., Dallas from Thursday, May 27 through Memorial Day, May 31, 1999.

Local artists will exhibit six to 10 pieces of artwork centered around a theme. The artwork will be in all varying types of media including watercolor, acrylic, oil, and ink. Exhibiting artists include: Karen Gurzynski, Dallas, "Floorcloths for the Seasons" in acrylic; Sue Hand, Dallas, "Memorial Day, Dallas, PA" in watercolor; Michell Lord, Hunlock Creek, "Disney World" in watercolor, ink, and colored pencil; Janice O'Brien, Harvey's Lake, "Household Still Lives" in oil; Lowry Puckey, Dallas, "Florida Coast" in watercolor.

Hours for the exhibit are Thursday, May 27 from 9-9; Saturday, May 29 from 9-4; and Memorial Day from 2-4. A Meet the Artists Reception will be held Friday, May 28 from 6-9 p.m.

For information, please contact Heather Madeira at 675-5094.

Library Auction accepting items for Odds N' Ends booth

Odds 'N Ends booth of the Annual Back Mountain Library Auction is now accepting donations of a wide variety of usable items for sale at the annual event on July 8 through 11. Exceptions are clothing and furniture, which are not accepted. All items may be dropped off at the library during library hours.

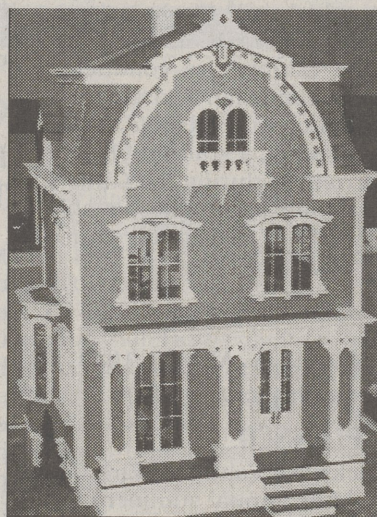

Items solicited include all types of household and kitchen items, working appliances, glass and dishware, children's toys, sporting goods, records, puzzles, lamps, jewelry and most other types of usable goods. Persons holding garage sales can contribute remaining items, except for clothing and furniture.

All proceeds accrue to the Back Mountain Library operational budget. Chairpersons are Sybil Pelton and Mary George.

Dreamhouses Club hosting doll house show at PSU

The Dreamhouses in Miniature Club was started in February 1992 as a means to share our hobby. We enjoyed building miniature buildings and their furnishings usually one inch to one foot scale or smaller. We also wanted to learn new crafts and keep everything as economical as possible since miniature doll houses can be very expensive.

This miniature house constructed by Jerry Sutton will be among those on display.

As word got around about our club, we had many calls from enthusiastic doll house people. After a little while our club grew and we became more organized. It was decided by the members to hold a miniature doll house show every other year. Proceeds would go to a worthy cause.

Some of the shows have benefited the following groups: Bk. Mt. Library; Children's Museum, Forty Fort; Lions Club of Nanticoke; Special Olympics, Penn State Lehman; Ronald McDonald House-Waverly; Wyoming Valley Cancer Society; Habitat for Humanity; Make A Wish Foundation; Meadows Nursing Center; Johns Hopkins Allied Center.

6 p.m. Proceeds, benefit the Teddy Bear Patrol.

Admission is $2.50 for adults, $1 for children 6-12; under 6 free.

This year's show will be held at Penn State-Wilkes-Barre Campus, Lehman, May 29-30 from 11 a.m.-

The club meets the last Tuesday of every month at the Emmanuel Assembly of God Church at Harveys Lake.

For information call, Lois Hughes, 675-5888 or Louise Montigny, 675-5075 or Jerry Sutton 675-0260.
