SPCA holding photo/essay contest for Adopt-a-Cat month

June is national Adopt-A-Cat Month at animal shelters across the United States. During the spring millions of kittens are being born adding to the pet overpopulation problem in the United States. Many never make it to a humane society where they will be cared for and given a chance to be adopted into a loving and caring home. In 1998 approximately 4,500 homeless, stray, unwanted, neglected and abused felines were housed and cared for at the SPCA of Luzerne County.

This year to help promote Adopt-A-Cat-Month the SPCA is sponsoring a Feline Photo/Essay Contest. To enter the contest mail or bring to the SPCA of Luzerne County, 524 E. Main Street, Wilkes-Barre, 18702, a color photo of your cat and an essay of 500 words or less on why your cat is the most special cat in the world. The contest is open to children and adults. Prizes will be awarded for the first, second and third place entries. Prizes are courtesy of Robert Temerantz Studio, Wilkes-Barre; Gifts Unlimited, Plains; Main Street Feed, Wilkes-Barre; Sherri Martin Photography, Kingston and Rygiel Studio of Wyoming.

Deadline for entries to be received is June 27. Photos will be returned if a SAE is enclosed with postage.
