Books available at two locations

Books will be for sale at two adjacent locations during the auction. The majority of books will be available in the basement bookshop. A tent adjacent to the bookshop entrance will serve as a super clearance site for children's books, juvenile paperbacks and older fiction and non-fiction books. Paperback classics by famous authors will also be for sale in the tent. None of the books in this location will cost more than one dollar.

The basement bookshop's stock includes newer books of all categories. Adult and juvenile collectibles, and "coffee table" books are available in the basement bookshop. Juvenile hard cover books, Nancy Drew for example, will be sold at this location. Many of the books in the basement are in new condition. There will be approximately 10,000 books available at these two sites.

The paperback book room will also be open during the auction. This room is reached by going down the stairs at the back entrance of the library. These books will cost 20¢ each or five for $1.

The three sites selling books will open one hour prior to the beginning of the auction on all four nights.
