Dallas students earn 'big bucks' in stock market game

A team from Dallas Elementary School and a team from Dallas Middle School were among the winners of the 1998-99 Stock Market Game competition conducted by the University of Scranton Center for Economic Education.

The Stock Market Game is a 10-week simulation during which students from three grade categories (4-6, 7-8, 9-12) invest an imaginary $100,000 by buying stocks listed on the major securities exchanges (New York, American and NASDAQ). Students who compete in the game not only learn how financial markets operate, but hone their mathematics and decision making skills as well. Separate 10-week competitions are held in the fall and spring. Team rankings are based on final portfolio values.

Teams that finished first, second and third in their categories were recognized at a June awards ceremony.

The Dallas teams finished first and second in the 4-6 grade category at the end of the spring 1999 competition.

Noon to attend National Youth Leadership forum

Jennifer Noon of Shavertown is scheduled to participate in the 1999 National Youth Leadership forum on medicine July 11-21 in Washington, Jenn, who is going to be a senior at Dallas High School, will be among a select group of outstanding high school juniors and seniors from across America and around the world who have met the qualifications required to participate in the Forum. Jenn was selected because of her outstanding academic achievements and her interest in medicine.

JENNIFER NOON

Jenn will enjoy 11 days of discovery and mentorship at some of America's most prominent and technologically-advanced medical institutions. The students will visit prestigious medical establishments including the Georgetown University School of Medicine, The National Library of Medicine, The George Washington University School of Medicine, and the University of Maryland School of Medicine. Intensive daylong concentrations at these and other institutions will allow students to examine state-of-the-art diagnostic tools and future medical specialties in detail. Jenn will also have the opportunity to study and learn from some of America's most distinguished medical leaders, including the U.S. Surgeon General and Patch Adams.

The National Youth Leadership Forum is a non-profit educational organization and Jenn received help to defray some of the expenses. Some of Jenn's sponsors were Dr. Kurt Maas, Dr. Edward Carey, Dr. Harry Reich, Dr. Mario Cornicchio, Dr. David Sowa (Newark, Delaware) and the Dallas School Board.

Jenn is a member of the class of 2000 at the Dallas Senior High. She is a three-sport varsity player, lettering in field hockey, basketball and softball. She is also involved with student council, steering committee, peer helpers, American Literature Field Studies Program, and the environmental club.
